The Legend of the Old Mill and Other Poems (Classic Reprint) L. Pillsbury, 2015-07-11 Excerpt from The Legend of the Old Mill and Other Poems A Legend of the Old Mill Twas an eve in November crisp and chill In the days of Mallet of the old windmill The work for the day at the mill was done The idling sails with the winds were at play The short lived twilight had faded away And close on the track of the setting sun Came the stars to their places one by one The hearty old miller jovial and fat For when was a miller other than that By his blazing fireside drowsily sat While his good wife busily plying her wheel Was watching her girls as they cleared away With laughter and jest for the young will be gay From the board the remains of the evening meal About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
