The Church School Journal ,1870 Teaching Literature and Writing in Prisons Sheila Smith McKoy,Patrick Elliot Alexander,2023-10-13 As the work of Malcolm X Angela Y Davis and others has made clear education in prison has enabled people to rethink systems of oppression Courses in reading and writing help incarcerated students feel a sense of community examine the past and present and imagine a better future Yet incarcerated students often lack the resources materials information and opportunity to pursue their coursework and training is not always available for those who teach incarcerated students This volume will aid both new and experienced instructors by providing strategies for developing courses for creating supportive learning environments and for presenting and publishing incarcerated students scholarly and creative work It also suggests approaches to self care designed to help instructors sustain their work Essays incorporate the perspectives of both incarcerated and nonincarcerated teachers and students centering critical prison studies scholarship and abolitionist perspectives This volume contains discussion of Mumia Abu Jamal s Live from Death Row Marita Bonner s The Purple Flower Suzanne Collins s The Hunger Games Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and William Shakespeare s The Taming of the Shrew and Othello Select notes on the international Sunday school lessons Adolphus Frederick Schaffler,1919 No Escape Joanne Mariner,2001 VI BODY AND SOUL Sermons on the International Sunday-school Lessons for 1876-19 Monday Club (Boston).,1876 Sermons on the International Sunday-school Lessons for ... prisoners have to rely on the goodwill of officers and their fellow inmates to fulfill the most basic of care needs. The responsibility to adapt the prison environment so that it suits less able prisoners lies with a prison's senior management team and the National Offender Management Service (NOMS). NOMS should conduct a comprehensive analysis of prisons' physical compliance with disability discrimination and age equality laws. The Committee does not believe there is a need for the expansion of segregated older prisoner units or wings. However, NOMS should ensure all prisons have an older prisoner policy that provides age and ability specific regimes. Furthermore, older prisoners who are released after a long period of incarceration must have a resettlement and care plan. At present, older prisoners are frequently released to no fixed abode, undermining all work that has been made towards resettlement.
