Sex and Self-Ownership Jesse Wall,2025-06-21 Since the criminal law acquits a person who mistakenly believed that another person consented to the sex that they forced upon them rape is not prohibited it is regulated to borrow Mackinnon's phrase This book is concerned with the legal category of the exculpatory mistaken belief in consent why this category ought to be narrowed and how it can be narrowed without departing from criminal law's retributive morality and principles of criminalisation The book calls for three reforms of the criminal law First sex itself should be a pro tanto wrong where consent can justify the wrong or a mistaken belief in consent can excuse the wrong Second consent ought to be defined in terms of the objective words and overt actions that express a subjective attitude Third whether the defendant had an exculpatory mistaken belief ought to be determined solely by having regard to the steps the defendant had taken to ascertain whether the complainant consented These calls are predicated on a range of philosophical inquiries including explanations of how all sex instrumentalizes and objectifies another person how consent performs of trilogy of functions by representing a choice expressing a person's interests and by empowering a person to change their normative relationship with another person how a person can be blameworthy for acting against moral reasons even when they were unaware those reasons applied to their moral situation and how we can have a justified belief in the mental state of another person Billboard,2003-01-25 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends The Law Times,1856 Congressional Record United States.
