Youth Health and Welfare Johanna Wyn, 2009 Youth Health and Welfare provides a critical policy and practice oriented interdisciplinary perspective on the changing nature of young people's lives and its impact on their health and wellbeing. The book draws on the latest research from a variety of Australian and international sources to introduce current debates and theoretical ideas, analyse key health and wellbeing issues, examine the challenges for health and education professionals, and review the ways in which health and educational approaches impact upon youth. The focus throughout is on young people's experiences, priorities, and attitudes in relation to risk, wellbeing, and health in a changing world. Youth Alternatives, Youth Awareness Press Robert E. Zucker, The Youth Alternatives and Youth Awareness Press tabloid newspapers were published in Tucson, Arizona, through the Tucson YWCA under the direction of Robert E. Zucker from 1978-1981. The newspaper was staffed by high school students and adult advisors and published through various local, state, and federal grants and funding sources. The Church Leader's Counseling Resource Book Cynthia Franklin Ph.D., Rowena Fong, 2011-02-01 This all-in-one guide is designed to better equip clergy and church leaders to meet their congregations' needs in a spiritually grounded and scientifically sound manner. Succinct, easy-to-read chapters summarize all a pastor needs to know about a given problem area, including its signs or symptoms, questions to ask, effective helping skills, and most importantly, when to refer to a mental health professional. Synthesizing what research says about treatment approaches for mental health issues, this user-friendly reference is filled with guidelines, case scenarios, key points to remember, resources for further help, advice on integrating scripture and theology with the best available research, and tips on partnering with others to provide the best possible care for each church member. Each chapter is designed for quick lookup by problem area, empowering church leaders to understand and help meet the challenges facing the children, adults, families, and communities that they serve.
