2002 Marian Butler,2002-02    Fixing the Broken Promise of Education for All Angela Hawke,2015 Fixing the Broken Promise of Education for All published by the UNESCO Institute for Statistics and UNICEF presents the latest statistical evidence from administrative records and household surveys to better identify children who are out of school and the reasons for their exclusion from education It aims to inform the policies needed to reach these children and finally deliver the promise of Education for All Based on a series of national and regional studies and policy analysis by leading experts the report explains why better data and cross sector collaboration are fundamental to the design of effective interventions to overcome the barriers facing out of school children and adolescents While highlighting the way forward for system wide policies to improve educational quality and affordability the report also presents the information needed for targeted approaches to address the compounding effects of disadvantage faced by children caught up in armed conflict girls working children children with disabilities or members of ethnic or linguistic minorities This report presents a roadmap to improve the data research and policies needed to catalyse action for out of school children as the world embarks on a new development agenda for education Pathway to Inclusion Anne Mungai, Esther Kogan, 2005-05-05 This edited volume candidly uncovers the inside experiences of different educational inclusion programs for special needs students Uniquely it focuses on the perspectives of students teachers parents university faculty and administrators These voices absent from most accounts of special education literature are often silenced by professional discourses concerned with identification assessment placement or practice Pathway to Inclusion is intended for practicing teachers prospective teachers administrators related professionals and family members of children with special needs It is intended not as a methods text but rather a comprehensive text American Book Publishing Record, 2004 New Era in Education, 1996 Enabling Praxis Stephen Kemmis, Tracey J. Smith, 2008 In a range of professions professional practice today is under threat It is endangered for example by pressures of bureaucratic control commodification marketization and the standardisation of practice in some professions In these times there is a need for deeper understandings of professional practice and how it develops through professional careers Enabling Praxis Challenges for education explores these questions in the context of initial and continuing professional education of teachers It presents a theory of the development of praxis morally committed action oriented by tradition to show the ways praxis is enabled and constrained by the cultural discursive material and social political conditions under which professional practice occurs It introduces the notion of practice architectures to show how particular conditions for practice shape the possibilities of praxis The way these processes work is illustrated by detailed exploration of a number of cases of praxis development in a variety of educational settings at a variety of levels in teacher education for schools and for vocational education and training in the continuing professional education of teachers in educational administration and in informal community based education for sustainability initiatives The book provides conceptual resources that permit deeper analysis of the character conduct and consequences of professional practice It concludes with challenges for education and for initial and continuing teacher education suggesting that the contemporary threats to education as a professional practice call for revitalisation of the profession professional bodies and the intellectual traditions that orient and guide educational practice Classroom Management for Middle and High School Teachers Edmund T.
