

Opening Statement

This is a regular open meeting of LifeRing Secular Recovery. LifeRing is a self-help support group for all people who want to get and stay clean and sober.

We feel that in order to remain in recovery, we have to make sobriety the top priority in our lives. By sobriety, we mean complete abstinence from alcohol and other addictive drugs.

Out of respect for people of all faiths and none, we conduct our meetings in a secular way, which means that, during this hour, we do not use prayer or talk about religion. We rely in our recovery on our own efforts and on the help of the group members and other friends.

Everything that we share at this meeting is completely confidential and stays in this room. If you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs now, we ask that you maintain silence at this meeting. You may speak with members afterward.

The meeting format is flexible. We generally begin by checking in and talking about the highlights and heartaches of our past week in recovery, and what we plan to do to stay clean and sober in the coming week.

We encourage cross-talk throughout the meeting. By cross-talk we mean questions and positive, supportive feedback. Positive experiences from your own recovery are welcome. Please allow enough time for everyone to participate by limiting your speaking time if necessary.

If this is your first time at this meeting of LifeRing -- Welcome. Please introduce yourself by your first name. If you would like, tell us how long you have been in recovery and then tell us about your past week and your coming week in recovery. If you would like to know more about the LifeRing approach, we have LifeRing books and handouts available here.

Thank you.

Resumes For Dummies Joyce Lain Kennedy, 2007-02-26 Is your job search stalling out after you submit a resume but before you're offered an interview? With reinvented recruiting technology, unmanageable millions of resumes choking employer databases, and government mandates in the name of diversity, a gigantic change has occurred in the recruiting world over the past several years, and it demands a fresh look at how you write and market your resumes. Whether you're entering the job market for the first time, changing jobs, or changing careers, Resumes for Dummies 5th Edition will show you the ropes and rules for a new era in recruiting and job finding. With 85% new content added since the previous edition, this up-to-date guide gives you the very latest strategies on how to create and, more importantly, distribute your resume in today's new job search environment. You'll learn: Why most generic online resumes fail; How to customize resumes for each job opening; New quick ways to find the right jobs; How to use meta search engines to your advantage; Why both digital and print versions of resumes are still needed; How to use resumes interactively; The resume basics that still knock 'em dead; How to create resumes for your life's changing phases; What to do after you send them your resume. With a wealth of sample resumes organized by industry and career field, experience level and age, and special circumstances, along with tips on choosing professional resume help and other valuable resources, Resumes for Dummies 5th Edition will help you get noticed in a universe saturated with billions of resumes and more on the way.

Bend to My Will Beth A., 2025-06-05 After twelve years, Beth Pollock is nervous about returning to the workforce full-time. She was hired as an assistant professor of education, which required her to teach classes, advise students, and oversee the senior education majors. But after a while, a new president of the college, and then COVID-19, came. Changes. Covid stripped away any masks and exposed everyone for who they are at their core. This revealed the new president to be a champion of gaslighting, manipulation, and workplace bullying, leading to the resignation of several staff members including Beth Bend to My Will details her experiences with this workplace abuse and provides suggestions for both victims and human resources departments on how to deal with such behavior It also delves into the different contexts outside of college and analyzes different workplace reports of abuse Hopefully her insight and experience will spark a national dialogue on how to deal with such behavior and what qualifies as abuse About the Author Beth A Pollock Ed D has been an educator for twenty five years with a doctorate degree in Curriculum Studies Theory She is currently an Independent Scholar with her research focusing on the intersections of curriculum constructs of power and gaslighting In addition to theoretical explorations in power She also engaged in pragmatic applications via Martial Arts where she is a member of the United Tae Kwon Do Federation She enjoys yoga hiking and traveling with her husband and two beautiful daughters along with escaping into the realms of science fiction fantasy
