If you feel the need to sort out your issue with alcohol but you are scared or reluctant to quit because you can't imagine life without drink then this book is for you. An awareness awakening and thought provoking book aimed at people contemplating cutting down or even giving up their drinking forever and a book that might just change your life. After 40 years of drinking and ending up a total alcoholic mess with type 2 diabetes, high blood pressure, gout and truthfully expecting to be dead not long after the age of 56, one day in 2012 I decided to quit alcohol forever. I've never touched a drop since and I have never been so wonderfully healthy, happy or contented and I have hopefully added at least 30 years to my life. But before that fateful day I never wanted to give up drinking. I loved drinking and I couldn't envisage life without the daily joy of bottles of wine, cider and the occasional gin. So what is it really like when you throw the alcohol crutch away and how have I coped with what I expected to be a life full of daily challenges, stress, regret, boredom and witnessing the laughter and the fun times steadily fade into distant memory? What will it be like for you if you follow my example? This book will help you answer those very questions and hopefully convince you that quitting IS easy, that you CAN do it too and that you will look back at your life and wonder WHY you waited so long.
