Confabulation: An Anecdotal Autobiography by Dave Gibbons Dave Gibbons, 2023-03-14 This comprehensive in depth and personal journey through the eyes of one of the world's most famous comics creators Dave Gibbons spans his earliest years copying Superman and Batman comics as a kid to co-creating the bestselling graphic novel of all time Watchmen and beyond. Presented alphabetically with informally written anecdotes that can be read from cover to cover or simply dipped into, Gibbons reveals unseen comics pitches, life as the first Comics Laureate and going from being a fanzine artist to infiltrating DC Comics in the 1970s. The book covers everything from working on Doctor Who and meeting Tom Baker to being inducted into the Eisner Hall of Fame. Gibbons also discusses for the first time anywhere the reasons why he and fellow Watchmen co-creator Alan Moore no longer speak. Packed with over 300 iconic, rarely seen and unpublished art pieces and photographs, Confabulation: An Anecdotal Autobiography not only entertains but peels back the layers of a fascinating career in comics.

The Book Of Friendship Josie Barnard, 2011-11-03 A fascinating study of friendship looking first at friendships in childhood and the challenge of maintaining them as adults. Barnard skilfully explores different types of friendships from the personal to the social and discusses the extent to which they create and are created by the societies within which they exist. As a child I found friendships alluring and confusing, even frightening. What would it be like to have someone you could trust like that? My upbringing was socially and demographically isolated. I couldn't do friendships. I was sombre and bespectacled. To my delight at infant school a girl called Dawn invited me back for tea. The return invitation saw Dawn in our dilapidated house choking on a bay leaf because she had been too embarrassed to ask why there was a leaf in her food and had tried to swallow it. That was the end of that alliance and perhaps the start of my interest in trying to work out this elusive potent thing called friendship.

An Ethical Literary Criticism of Han Suyin's Autobiography Florence Kuek, 2025-04-15 Han Suyin (1916-1917) became a household name when Love is A Many Splendored Thing the Hollywood rendition of her novel won several awards in 1956. The study of Han Suyin went out of fashion for a while but it has recently been revitalised especially in Singapore and Malaysia. Kuek pays attention to The Crippled Tree autobiographical series delineating her two-track narrative of her family saga against the backdrop of 20th century China. Different from the earlier studies on Han Suyin that employed perspectives from postcolonialism, feminism and new historicism, this book examines Han Suyin's autobiography through the lens of ethical literary criticism (ELC) paying attention to the ethical lines and knots embedded in her series. Using ELC, an apolitical literary analysis approach, this book uncovers multiple layers of meaning and reveals Han Suyin's life trajectory which draws attention to China's difficult path of modernisation in the past century. The insights gleaned from this book shed light on Han Suyin's life accomplishments in the face of great adversities and challenges. This is a valuable book that will enlighten literary critics on critical approaches to autobiography and those interested in understanding the development of modern China through the words of a proud Chinese Eurasian writer living in the era Teacher Practice Online Désirée H. Pointer-Mace, 2009-04-27 Teachers know how complicated their work is They constantly balance considerations of individual students with those of the group they think about how past events affect today's lessons and they constantly adapt and revise for future lessons But few people ever get to see teachers work in this way The most energizing relational complicated inspiring disheartening parts of teaching remain largely invisible Over nearly a decade at the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching Dr. H. Pointer Mace worked with dozens of teachers across the country to open their doors by creating multimedia web based representations of teaching practice This book describes how such multimedia representations are envisioned documented created and shared and how others might engage in this process This practical book Examines the cutting edge of electronic media documentation of teaching practice Features cases studies that represent diverse grades cultures and contexts with both novice and veteran teachers Provides clear examples of how multimedia representations of teaching can be used as alternative texts in teacher learning environments Describes the positive outcomes for teachers and learners when teaching is made public Includes screen images of teachers websites as well as classrooms and children participating in projects Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton, 1985

(Re)Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Cristina Pividori, David Owen, 2024-07-09 Re Writing War in Contemporary Literature and Culture Beyond Post Memory is an exploration of war narratives through the lens of postmemory offering a critical re evaluation of how contemporary literature and cultural products reshape our understanding of past conflicts This volume presents a rich tapestry of perspectives drawing from an array of conflicts and incorporating insights from international experts across various disciplines including contemporary literature film studies visual arts and cultural studies It critically builds upon and extends Marianne Hirsch's concept of postmemory engaging with complex themes like the ethical dimensions of war writing the authenticity of representations and the creative power of art in reimagining traumatic events This study not only challenges traditional boundaries in war literature and memory studies but also resonates with contemporary concerns about societal engagement with violent pasts making it a significant addition to scholarly discourse and essential reading for those interested in the intersection of history memory and literature *The Family treasury of Sunday reading, ed. by A.
