Emmy Award Winning Nighttime Television Shows, 1948-2004 Wesley Hyatt, 2015-09-11 Since the early days of television well before most households had a set the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences has been handing out honors for the industry's best efforts. Now fans can read about their favorites and perhaps rediscover some forgotten pleasures in this reference to prime time and nighttime Emmy winners. Beginning with the heated charade contest known as Pantomime Quiz which won Most Popular Program of 1948 in the first Emmy Awards ceremony held in 1949 each of more than 100 winning shows gets star treatment with an entry that includes the year of award or awards air times hosts guests casts and a full discussion of the show's history and run. Many of the entries include original interviews with cast or crew members. With such rich information each show's entry constitutes a chapter in the history of television through the story of the show and the people who made it happen. The best of variety drama game shows comedies adventures and many more categories are featured. An appendix offers interesting facts and figures and ranks shows according to such statistics as longest run longest delay from debut to win and most Emmys won.

Ideas Don't Die. Companies Do. Hari Abburi, 2025-06-30 Rethink ideas as the real value to the future of your business in a technology world where knowledge is increasingly a commodity. In Ideas Don't Die Companies Do renowned voice on disruptive agility and executive Hari Abburi delivers an insightful framework for leaders to future proof their companies by creating an idea obsessed enterprise. In the book you'll learn why ideas are more important than customers to disrupt the industry and marketplace. The author explains how to distinguish between ideas that are truly original and those that require strategic execution to differentiate them from other choices on the market. He offers key insights into how to glean information from other companies who have worked with the idea and how to apply that knowledge to your firm's own idea. Inside the book Explanations of the idea moat that creates exponential value at one company as opposed to another that uses similar ideas. Compelling answers to questions about idea timing and why ideas that failed a few years ago can be successful today. How to shift your company's focus from thinking customers to thinking ideas. Perfect for managers executives entrepreneurs founders and other business leaders. Ideas Don't Die Companies Do will also benefit product team leaders and other innovators with a desire to bring new and exciting ideas to the market.

Greenlit: Developing Factual/Reality TV Ideas from Concept to Pitch Nicola Lees, 2010-09-01 Blows the lid on so many TV secrets. Tom Archer Controller Factual BBC If every first time producer read this before pitching a program I guarantee a greater success rate.
