The Safe Standing Movement in Football Mark Turner, 2023-09-08 This book tells the important story of the 30 year social movement against all seated stadia in football in England and Wales that developed in the wake of the Hillsborough stadium disaster and the wider European and international significance of that movement Examining the fan networks relations tactics and interactions which built the Safe Standing movement this book reveals an untold social history of football supporter activism and represents an important contribution to our understanding of football supporter based social movements the sociology of football and social movement studies more broadly This book argues that Safe Standing is sociologically highly significant because the restriction and partial exclusion of football fans as a social group in the timescape of English football after Hillsborough marked a moment of profound social change in the UK Applying relational sociology and drawing on original research and insider access this book considers how events and ruptures such as Hillsborough shape the dynamics of a social movement In this case supporters who have been deeply affected by the all seating legislation are now in a position to affect the future consumption of football This book shows how this was achieved and how a small core network of approximately 30 supporters networked with supporter groups across Europe now stand to impact and shape the consumption habits of a key leisure practice all over the world This is fascinating reading for any student researcher or policy maker with an interest in football sociology political science public policy or cultural and social history

Walter Johnson Had No Idea Robert McCammon, 2022-11-30 A dirt farmer in Southern Indiana in the year 1924 chose to name his son after a famous baseball player who would someday enter the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown Little did anyone know at the time including that famous player just how much that decision would mean to that son and the generations to follow That was the beginning of a love affair with baseball that would identify this family a love that would begin with the Washington Senators and move on to Minnesota in 1961 Now five generations in this family allegiance is still very much alive today This is a story of the son of that son with the famous name and his love of baseball that was handed down to him He in turn has passed that love on to his son who now has a daughter who will hopefully understand this love of the game Memories are made with the game of baseball and so many are worth sharing As the pages of this book are turned the reader will begin to recognize many of these memories and hopefully be reminded of memories that are part of their lives Hopefully the reader will have a better understanding of how generations of a family can be connected by the threads of a baseball

Standing with Stones Rupert

Soskin, 2009 From stone circles and henges to long barrows and cairns our distant ancestors left us tantalizing signs of their long forgotten lives From the tip of Cornwall to the far Scottish isles a wonderful variety of ancient stone monuments present an enigmatic face to the world Some sites like Stonehenge and Newgrange are often visited whilst many such as Fernworthy and Bleasdale are barely known at all Not only do we share Rupert Soskin's experiences of visiting these magical places but we also join him in his quest for answers to puzzling questions What were such sites really for Why did ancient people expend so much time and energy on creating these mysterious structures Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1895
