On Living And Dying Well Penguin Classics:

On Living and Dying Well Cicero, 2012-07-05 In the first century BC Marcus Tullius Cicero orator statesman and defender of republican values created these philosophical treatises on such diverse topics as friendship religion death fate and scientific inquiry A pragmatist at heart Cicero's philosophies were frequently personal and ethical drawn not from abstract reasoning but through careful observation of the world The resulting works remind us of the importance of social ties the questions of free will and the justification of any creative endeavour This lively lucid new translation from Thomas Habinek editor of Classical Antiquity and the Classics and Contemporary Thought book series makes Cicero's influential ideas accessible to every reader Ancient and Modern Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West Gregory

Bracken, 2025-10-01 What does it mean to be a good citizen today What are practices of citizenship And what can we learn from the past about these practices to better engage in city life in the twenty first century Ancient and Modern Practices of Citizenship in Asia and the West Care of the Self is a collection of papers that examine these questions The contributors come from a variety of different disciplines including architecture urbanism philosophy and history and their essays make comparative examinations of the practices of citizenship from the ancient world to the present day in both the East and the West The papers comparative approaches between East and West and ancient and modern leads to a greater understanding of the challenges facing citizens in the urbanized twenty first century and by looking at past examples suggests ways of addressing them While the book's point of departure is philosophical its key aim is to examine how philosophy can be applied to everyday life for the betterment of citizens in cities not just in Asia and the West but everywhere A Death of the World Harris B. Bechtol, 2025-04-01 A Death of the World offers a phenomenological description of what happens to the world for those who survive the death of someone Bringing Jacques Derrida's works into conversation with the philosophies of Martin Heidegger Emmanuel Levinas Jean Luc Marion Maurice Blanchot and Claude Romano the poetry and literature of Paul Celan W H Auden Emily Dickinson Ovid and Jonathan Safran Foer and psychological works concerning trauma mourning epigenetics and memory author Harris B Bechtol provides interdisciplinary language for understanding the death of the other as an event He argues that such death must be understood as an event because this death is more than just the loss of the other who has died insofar as the meaning of the world to and with this other is also lost Such loss manifests itself through the transformations of both the spaces in which meaning takes place and the lived time of a survivor's world These transformations of the world culminate in his account of workless mourning which establishes the contours of the life after these deaths of the world Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical

Association, 2012 List of members in v 1 Longevity Susannah Marriott, 2025-07-17 Good ageing is about being increasingly resilient to the stuff life throws at us change loss adversity so we can process it in a way that keeps life feeling meaningful and satisfying and we remain motivated to bounce back and try new things What makes us resilient An active life with a good diet and enough sleep a sense of life satisfaction and self esteem positive brain stimulation satisfying human interaction and spiritual sustenance The desire for a long healthy and happy life is a universal one yet society has a deep fear of ageing Longevity offers an all encompassing holistic look at how the body ages and what we can all do to age better You ll discover that a longer life blessed with health and happiness is within reach by learning How the ageing process works and what you can do to enjoy a better quality of life What history biology Eastern philosophy Western science can teach us about maintaining optimal health The important role that a sense of purpose connection love and curiosity have in helping us to live well and live happily

Intersections of Ageing and Disability during the COVID-19 Pandemic Bethany Simmonds, Maria Berghs, 2025-03-14 The sociology of ageing disability and health illness are fields of research which have many crossovers intersections and convergences and these connections have been under researched which reflects the neglect of the sociology of ageing and disability in mainstream sociology more broadly Although the pandemic has illuminated the experiences of older people and people with disabilities disability and age have often been conflated for instance when calculating risk of infection and disease Whilst there are some shared experiences of discrimination and precarity between older people and persons with disabilities there are also important divergences in historical political and theoretical underpinnings in these corpuses of work which need further exploration as does potential for conversations and or connection across distinct fields Although experiences of ageism and disablism are not understood universally they have been intensified by the COVID 19 pandemic The rationing of limited healthcare resources from ventilators to vaccines has been openly debated particularly in relation to their allocation to older people persons with disabilities and or those with chronic health conditions The implementation of restrictions to movement and social interactions in many countries has also had a disproportionate effect on older and disabled groups with many being disproportionately targeted and their freedoms limited to protect them against those who are more likely to spread the virus As groups amongst whom some people tend to already be sequestered from society these practices have had cumulative long term detrimental impacts on their mental physical and social wellbeing and arguably on how both groups are represented in societies Scholarship is responding to issues highlighted by the pandemic in the treatment and representation of older people and persons with disabilities but this tends to focus either on older people or people with disabilities Our goal is instead to move debates forward by seeking contributions that take both disability and ageing into account
