On the Beaten Path Robert Rubin, 2009-03-03 Back in Paperback with a new afterword by the author Of the thru hikers who set out to walk the entire Appalachian Trail most don't make it Robert Rubin's chances didn't look good Thirty eight years old dispirited and burned out by a job he no longer loved he decided to leave mortgage and wife and cul de sac life behind for a journey that could take half a year or perhaps never end On the trail's wooded ridges Rubin found himself part of a strange vagrant culture of pilgrims and dropouts a world with its own rules and rituals With eloquence and humor he recounts his trek the people he met the landscapes he passed through the spiritual and physical endurance involved despite a diet heavy in Snickers bars and macaroni cheese he lost seventy five pounds along the way On the Beaten Path is a wise witty look at one of the few remaining pilgrimages in our disillusioned age

Walking with Jason John F. Hunt, 2013-04 John Hunt is a kind and gregarious man His eyes twinkle and his face beams He is a retired businessman and still retains that drive I met John the summer of 2000 He came for the graduation ceremony of the crew of students that Jason had led and we talked Jason had a difficult course which is common for new instructors The next summer Jason emerged as a solid leader and had a wonderful course Several months later while on a climbing vacation in British Columbia Jason took a tragic fall His family's reaction was to create a foundation in Jason's name that supported his love of the outdoors The Jason William Hunt Foundation had had tremendous impact on many people especially young people in transition who want to expand their horizons This happens in an outdoor setting lead by instructors like Jason It happens every summer at the Wilderness School John's only son Jason will forever be twenty four years old My son John is twenty five Our sons like many young men seek adventure Parents care deeply about their children and the fear of losing a child dwells in all of us How does a parent cope with the tragic loss of their beloved child Walking with Jason is a quest to trace Jason's brief life as a young man John becomes the youthful adventurer and visits Jason's world John seemingly falls through the looking glass and discovers a mysterious and wonderful world inhabited by troubled adolescents craggy Thru hikers idealistic outdoor leaders and others who visit nature's realm Ultimately John's odyssey is a very personal journey of self discovery and gives us a compass bearing on how to deal with the sudden loss of a child I will forever be connected to Jason Danielle Amy Rosemarie and John Thank you for generous hearts and concern for youth Tom Dyer L C S W Instructor 1980 1983 Director Youth Wilderness School 1983 2009 Founding Director Wilderness School East Hartland CT 1990

our minds enhancing our sense of wonder and deepening our connection to nature Evoking the writings of Gary Snyder Bill Bryson and Cheryl Strayed Zen on the Trail explores the broad question of how to be outside in a meditative way By directing our attention to how we hike as opposed to where we re headed Ives invites us to shift from ego driven doing to spirit filled being and to explore the vast interconnection of ourselves and the natural world Through this approach we can wake up in the woods on nature s own terms In erudite and elegant prose Ives takes us on a journey we will not soon forget This book features a new prose poem by Gary Snyder Journal of Appalachian Studies ,2001 School Library Journal ,2000
