On The Cultures Of Exile Translation And Writing Comparative Cultural Studies:

On the Cultures of Exile, Translation, and Writing Paolo Bartoloni, 2008 The hypothesis of Paolo Bartoloni's book is based on the belief that a substantial and innovative discussion of the philosophical notions of immanence and potentiality is not only overdue but also necessary to address the social political cultural and ethical aporia confronting us today. The phenomenon of globalization with its countless sub narratives such as mobility migration security authenticity and inauthenticity can be thought and contextualized through a close reading and articulation of immanence and potentiality. The author provides a tangible and workable philosophical and cultural discourse within which to present an alternative understanding of subjectivity by engaging in a theoretical discussion with the philosophical discourse on potentiality and immanence of which the writings of Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben are among the most advanced and innovative examples to date. Secondly Bartoloni presents a virtual insight into the potential immanent subject and community through exploring a radically new interpretation of exile translation and temporality. Finally the author shows how the experience of potentiality and immanence and their ontological statuses have been explored and realized in literature through a close reading and articulation of a series of selected texts especially works by Giorgio Caproni and Maurice Blanchot. The methodology of the study is interdisciplinary ranging across literary theory postmodern cultural analysis hermeneutics and comparative culture analysis.

Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino, 2015 In Transcultural Writers and Novels in the Age of Global Mobility Arianna Dagnino analyzes a new type of literature emerging from artists' increased movement and cultural flows spawned by globalization. This transcultural literature is produced by authors who write across cultural and national boundaries. Dagnino's book contains a creative rendition of interviews conducted with five internationally renowned writers: Inez Baranay, Brian Castro, Alberto Manguel, Tim Parks, and Ilija Trojanow, and a critical exegesis reflecting on thematic critical and stylistic aspects. By studying the selected authors' corpus of work, life experiences and cultural orientations, Dagnino explores the implicit often subconscious process of cultural and imaginative metamorphosis that leads transcultural writers and their fictionalized characters beyond ethnic, national, racial or religious loci of identity and identity formation. The work is a significant contribution to scholarship for it increases our theoretical awareness of today's literary developments, providing us with critical tools that enable us to approach literary texts with an innovative perspective. Maurizio Ascari, Università di Bologna.

Urban Cultures in (post)colonial Central Europe Agata Anna Lisiak, 2010 Agata Anna Lisiak shows in her book Urban Cultures in Post colonial Central Europe how the postcolonial idea developed recently to study Central and East European culture can help us see the transformations of cities in the region. Lisiak argues that Berlin, Budapest, Warsaw and Prague are incubated cultures whose deepest forces were shadowy and ironic. Marshall Berman, City University of New York.

Transnational Discourses on Class, Gender, and Cultural Identity Irene Marques, 2012-01-16 This exploration of class feminism and cultural identity including issues of race nation colonialism and economic imperialism focuses on the work of four writers the Mozambican Mia Couto the Portuguese Jos Saramago the Brazilian Clarice Lispector and the South African J M Coetzee In the first section the author discusses the political aspects of Couto s collection of short stories Contos do nascer da terra Stories of the Birth of the Land and Saramago s novel O ano da morte de Ricardo Reis The Year of the Death of Ricardo Reis The second section explores similar themes in Coetzee s Life and Times of Michael K and Lispector s A hora da estrela The
