Gilbert Jr., 2025-09-29 This is a book about a treasure hidden on college campuses across the United States This treasure is the expertise that college coaches acquire as they do their life work in intercollegiate athletic competition In their work coaches routinely join to sustain relationships among parties who hold very different interests as they meet in scheduled athletic competition This expertise is a treasure for General Education because General Education entails preparing adults to live thoughtfully and with civility in the company of one another This treasure is hidden because coaches are customarily ineligible to teach in the academic program The author shows that such exclusion is optional He charts a pathway for bringing coaches off the bench and into General Education teaching He presents plans with which college faculty and coaches can join to assemble texts for teaching learners about claiming places in something larger than career and familiar comfort In the precise grammar of these texts the author demonstrates that college coaches are positioned to contribute comprehensively to the advancement of General Education Justice and American Intercollegiate Athletics Daniel R. Gilbert Jr., 2025-09-03 This is a book about athletic competitors belonging to something larger than their accustomed and immediate pursuits The centerpiece of this book is an accomplishment of justice in the routine conduct of American intercollegiate athletics This accomplishment was a resilient assembly of intercollegiate athletic competitors who sustained bilateral playing relationships and concurrently ventured into playing relationships outside their circle This was a just arrangement because participants tolerated one another's separate pursuits while affirming that they belonged to enduring playing relationships They affirmed such belonging through their bilateral scheduling practices Evidence of this justice accomplishment is abundant in hundreds of schedules This book contains two historical narratives about connected competitors departing one another's company to travel distinctive pathways In both narratives athletic competitors reestablished playing relationships from which they had departed Through their acts of connection departure and reconnection these competitors joined to create enduring patterns of centered belonging And they did this as athletic competitors whose interests were directly opposed The Official National Collegiate Athletic Association Basketball Guide ,1944 The Comprehensive Guide to Careers in Sports Glenn Wong, 2009 As more students enter the growing field of sports management there is a greater need for information informing them about their career choices Careers in Sports provides an overview of what students should consider and expect from the varied career options available to them This book answers the questions students are most likely to have including what courses they should take what areas are available to them what salary can they expect to earn after graduation and how they can get the job of their dreams In the highly competitive field of sports management it is important for individuals to prepare themselves well and to make the right decisions along the way Although there are no guarantees of success this book will increase students likelihood of finding success in the sports industry Encouraging research and realistic expectations this book has been developed by an author with many years of experience as a respected practitioner teacher and internship coordinator The Comprehensive Guide to Careers in Sports Glenn M. Wong,2013 Provides an overview of what students should consider and expect from the varied career options available to them in the sports industry This book answers the questions students are most likely to have including what courses they should take the areas of study available to them the salary they can expect to earn after graduation and how they can get the job of their dreams This essential guide will help increase students likelihood of finding careers in the highly competitive sports industry
