White,Suzie Thomas,2018-09-22 Archaeological heritage legislation aims to ensure the best possible protection for the archaeological heritage yet it remains the case that legislation can remain ineffective through other practical considerations Some consideration may be legal or procedural such as difficulties in enforcing legislation or in preventing crimes or damage or archaeological monuments However other problems may be less obvious and harder to address and require solutions which go much further than the simple application of the law The aim of this volume is to address several issues surrounding the management of archaeological heritage comparing and contrasting which laws work and which ones do not and ignoring other issues which might effectively present the transplantation of an ideal system to another country or political climate Or the cultural attitudes which might prevent a law working in the legal system for which it was designed The contributions are from various international jurisdictions and address a variety of subjects from the protection of archaeological monuments to dealing with and controlling chance finds made by members of the public Mergent International Manual ,2009

Reconstructing a Maritime Past Matthew Harpster,2022-12-30 Reconstructing a Maritime Past argues that rather than applying geo ethnic labels to shipwrecks to describe Greek or Roman seafaring a more intriguing alternative emphasizes a maritime culture s valorization of the Mediterranean Sea Doing so creates new questions and research agendas to understand the past human relationship with the sea This study makes this argument in three sections Chapters 1 and 2 contrasting intellectual histories of maritime archaeological interpretive approaches common in Northern Europe and the Mediterranean propose that the former perspective which embodies contemporary and fluid perceptions of culture is a better theoretical framework for future research Chapters 3 5 re interpret the corpus of submerged sites in the Mediterranean Sea with this approach arguing that this dataset does not represent Phoenician Muslim or Byzantine seafaring but the practices of a maritime culture Key to this section is the author s method that utilizes superimposed polygons to model patterns of maritime activity generating centennial results at different scales Having built the models of a maritime culture s valorization of the Mediterranean Sea Chapter 6 contains the first comparisons of these models to other datasets questioning the relevance of textual media to understand maritime activity while finding closer analogues with other archaeological corpora By deconstructing interpretive methods in maritime archaeology offering a new synthesizing interpretive approach that is scalable and decoupled from past perceptions and critically examining the applicability of various media to illuminate the past maritime experience this book will appeal to scholars at various stages of their careers Moody's OTC Unlisted Manual ,1988 Promoting Successful Integration Rory A.
