H. Fong, 2025-12-11 The Palgrave Geopolitical Atlas State and Quasi State Actors in Great Power Competition is a comprehensive authoritative survey of the twenty first century global politics Going beyond the traditional state centrism in the international relations discipline this book re orients both states and quasi states as critical geopolitical actors This book challenges the state centrism in orthodox international relations scholarship Advancing a post sovereign lens this book re imagines a global geopolitical map that features different types of states and quasi states By doing so this book transcends the mainstream great power small state framework in geopolitical studies and advances a novel agenda for investigating the interaction of states and quasi states in global politics It guides readers to interpret the twenty first century global geopolitical map through a post sovereign lens This book will be an essential reference for international relations scholars and students around the world It will also appeal to global policy makers and practitioners who are observing the dynamics of contemporary great power competition U.S. Approaches to Global Security Challenges Kristen Boon, Aziz Z. Huq, 2012 Terrorism Commentary on Security Documents is a series that provides primary source documents and expert commentary on the worldwide counter terrorism effort Among the documents collected are transcripts of Congressional testimony reports by such federal government bodies as the Congressional Research Service CRS and the Government Accountability Office GAO and case law covering issues related to terrorism Most volumes carry a single theme and inside each volume the documents appear within topic based categories The series also includes a subject index and other indices that guide the user through this complex area of the law Volume 124 U S Approaches to Global Security Challenges analyzes U S strategy toward security threats across the globe and identifies the beginnings of a shift away from a reliance on military power to the application of various types of civilian power which utilize a multinational approach The documents introduced by Douglas Lovelace include U S perspectives on the international security situation generally as well as reports on more specific topics such as the security situation in Afghanistan terrorism in East Africa the evolving role of NATO and cooperation between the U S and other governments such as the EU and China in the fight against terrorism
