ORIGIN 7 Yoshikazu Yasuhiko, 2006-10 Manga and the Representation of Japanese History Roman Rosenbaum, 2013 This edited collection explores how graphic art and in particular Japanese manga represent Japanese history The articles explore the representation of history in manga from disciplines that include such diverse fields as literary studies politics history cultural studies linguistics narratology and semiotics Despite this diversity of approaches all academics from these respective fields of study agree that manga pose a peculiarly contemporary appeal that transcends the limitation imposed by traditional approaches to the study and teaching of history The representation of history via manga in Japan has a long and controversial historiographical dimension Thereby manga and by extension graphic art in Japanese culture has become one of the world's most powerful modes of expressing contemporary historical verisimilitude. The contributors to this volume elaborate how manga and by extension graphic art rewrites, reinvents and reimagines the historicity and dialectic of bygone epochs in postwar and contemporary Japan. Manga and the Representation of Japanese History will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian studies, Asian history, Japanese culture and society as well as art and visual culture. Routledge Handbook of Memory and Reconciliation in East Asia Mikyoung Kim, 2015-10-05 Decades after the end of the World War II, East Asia continues to struggle with lingering animosities and unresolved historical grievances in domestic, bilateral and regional memory landscapes. China, Japan and the Korea share a history of inter and intra violence, self-other identity construction and diametrically opposed interpretations of the past. Routledge Handbook of Memory and Reconciliation in East Asia offers a complete overview of the challenges of national memory and ideological rivalry for reconciliation in the East Asian region. Chapters provide authoritative analyses of contentious issues such as comfort women, the Nanjing massacre, history textbook controversies, shared heritage sites, colonial rule, territorial disputes and restitution. By interweaving memory, human rights and reconciliation, the contributors actively explore real prospects of redressing past wrongs and achieving peaceful coexistence at personal as well as governmental levels. Bringing together an international team of experts, this book is an essential read for students and scholars of East Asian studies, anthropology, gender studies, history, international relations, law, political science and sociology, and for those interested in memory and reconciliation issues.
