A Territory in Conflict

Fatina Abreek-Zubiedat,2025-04-08 A Territory in Conflict explores Israeli and Palestinian projects of modernization and development in the Gaza Strip from the outset of Israel s military occupation in 1967 to the Oslo Accords of 1993 Rather than reduce the Gaza Strip to an arena of war and violence Fatina Abreek Zubiedat resurrects the urban and architectural history of Gaza s cities and the varied perspectives and identities of the people who shaped them Through a close examination of planning activities in occupied Palestinian territory focusing on development settlement and security her book highlights the collision between Israeli occupation Palestinian nationalism and regional peace processes politics of class and citizenship contestation between camps and cities and the tensions inherent in Israeli development policies designed to establish lasting control over the territory s demographics and resources Abreek Zubiedat probes the power of architecture in conflict zones illustrating the agency of Gaza s cultural elite its mayors architects and engineers At the same time she draws attention to alternative voices Gaza s local inhabitants and refugees illuminating the conflicts complexities and contradictions of settler colonialism in the Middle East Her innovative approach to urbanization resettlement and rehabilitation in the Gaza Strip offers a groundbreaking account of the Israel Palestine conflict that goes beyond the limited framework of colonizer colonized binary restoring Gaza s cities in the public eye and giving voice to the people who inhabit them

Region

Simon Richards,Robert Schmidt III,Cagri Sanliturk,Falli Palaiologou,2023-07-28 This book explores how the concept of region has evolved over time and shaped architectural culture and practice It questions what the words region and regional mean for architecture cities and landscapes past and present and speculates on the forms they might take in the future Region is explored in many thematic guises as a real geographical site of evolving socio economic activity as a mythical locus of enduring value as a gatekeeper of indigenous crafts and vernacular techniques as a site of architectural and artistic imagination as a repository of contested conflicted and mobile identities The contributing chapters take these themes from the theoretical and literary page through to architectural and urban practice and from the scale of the domestic hearth through to the ocean archipelago and international law enriching the long standing trope of viewing architectural regionalism purely as a matter of style Curated into four key thematic areas Theorised Regions Contested Regions Heritage

Regions and Future Regions the book incorporates the values concerns and approaches of a truly diverse international community of scholars curators and practitioners as well as the design work of international students tasked to explore what region means to them Colonialism and Modern Architecture in Germany Itohan Osayimwese, 2017-07-19 Over the course of the nineteenth century drastic social and political changes technological innovations and exposure to non Western cultures affected Germany's built environment in profound ways The economic challenges of Germany's colonial project forced architects designing for the colonies to abandon a centuries long highly ornamental architectural style in favor of structural technologies and building materials that catered to the local contexts of its remote colonies such as prefabricated systems As German architects gathered information about the regions under their influence in Africa Asia and the Pacific during expeditions at international exhibitions and from colonial entrepreneurs and officials they published their findings in books and articles and organized lectures and exhibits that stimulated progressive architectural thinking and shaped the emerging modern language of architecture within Germany itself Offering in depth interpretations across the fields of architectural history and postcolonial studies Itohan Osayimwese considers the effects of colonialism travel and globalization on the development of modern architecture in Germany from the 1850s until the 1930s Since architectural developments in nineteenth century Germany are typically understood as crucial to the evolution of architecture worldwide in the twentieth century this book globalizes the history of modern architecture at its founding moment Design Dispersed Burcu Dogramaci, Kerstin Pinther, 2019 Design Dispersed pursues the complex and heterogeneous connections between migration and design in the 20th and 21st centuries The edited volume gathers contributions by international researchers and curators on the question of how design practices and historical objects articulate respond to and critically reflect on migration flight and displacement Besides a collage which highlights the aesthetic effects resulting from the networking overlapping and mixing of forms another strand of the book looks at the political and social dimensions of design How are design objects material modes of a critical inquiry on movements of people and things What role do object trajectories play in the migr movements of the 1930s and 1940s Other texts follow the question of how migrants and refugees form their experience and political fight for acceptance into design and architectural productions A final essay contributes to wordings and projections what vocabulary do we need in order to adequately think and write about a design dispersed
