Notes Of A Desolate Man:

Situating Sexualities Fran Martin, 2003-05-01 This is the first book in English to analyse the stunning rise to prominence of cultures of dissident sexuality in Taiwan during the 1990s Positioned at the crossroads of queer theory and postcolonial cultural studies this book intervenes in current debates on sexuality and globalization to argue that the current emergence of public dissident sexualities in non Western locations like Taiwan cannot be reduced to the effects of homogenizing Westernization Instead Situating Sexualities approaches the queer sexualities represented in recent Taiwanese fiction film and public culture as dynamic formations that combine local knowledge with globalizing discourses on gay and lesbian identity to produce sexualities that are multiple shifting and inherently hybrid Equally the book pushes out the limits of queer to challenge the Eurocentrism of much queer theory to date Consistently critical of essentializing accounts of Chinese culture the book nevertheless highlights some of the important ways in which Taiwanese formations of dissident sexuality differ from the familiar Euro American formations

Notes of a Desolate Man T'ien-wen Chu, 1999-05-06 Winner of the coveted China Times Novel Prize this postmodern first person tale of a contemporary Taiwanese gay man reflecting on his life loves and intellectual influences is among the most important recent novels in Taiwan The narrator Xiao Shao recollects a series of friends and lovers as he watches his childhood friend Ah Yao succumb to complications from AIDS The brute fact of Ah Yao's death focuses Shao's simultaneously erudite and erotic reflections magnetically on the core theme of mortality By turns humorous and despondent the narrator struggles to come to terms with Ah Yao's risky lifestyle radical political activism and eventual death the fragility of romantic love the awesome power of eros the solace of writing the cold ennui of a younger generation enthralled only by video games and life on the edge of mainstream Taiwanese society His feverish journey through forests of metaphor and allusion from Fellini and L vi Strauss to classical Chinese poetry serves as a litany protecting him from the ravages of time and finitude Impressive in scope and detail Notes of a Desolate Man employs the motif of its characters marginalized sexuality to highlight Taiwan's vivid and fragile existence on the periphery of mainland China Howard Goldblatt and Sylvia Li chun Lin's masterful translation brings Chu T'ien wen's lyrical and inventive pastiche of political poetic and sexual desire to the English speaking world

Notes of a Desolate Man Chu Tien-Wen, 2000-09-01 Following the death of a childhood friend from AIDS Taiwanese gay man Xiao Shao reflects upon his own life and the people with whom he has connected

The Naked Gaze Carlos Rojas, 2020-03-17 This is a study of visuality in early modern and modern China Its focus however is not so much on imagery per se but rather on how vision itself has been conceived imagined and deployed in a variety of discursive contexts Of particular interest is how these discourses of vision have been used to articulate issues of gender and desire and specifically processes of gendered subject formation Through detailed readings of narrative works by eight authors of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries ranging from the canonical to the popular to the esoteric the study identifies three distinct constellations of visual concerns corresponding to the late imperial mid twentieth century and contemporary periods respectively At the same time however it argues that those historical periodizations themselves do not reflect a smooth unidirectional temporal movement rather they are the result of a complex process of retrospection and anticipatory projection The goal of this volume is to use a focus on tropes of visibility and gender to reflect on shifting understandings of the significance of Chineseness modernity and Chinese modernity

Transformation! Innovation? Christina Neder, Ines-Susanne Schilling, 2003 Public discourse on cultural identity was not possible on the island of Taiwan until martial law was lifted there in 1987 While until then culture had mainly been an arena for the suppressed political discourse the demise of the oneparty reign of the Guomindang KMT at the end of the 20th century signified not only the transformation from an autocratic to a democratic system but also the end of the cultural hegemony of the mainlanders on the island The transformation process paved the way for further cultural innovation the keywords here being education reform language debate establishment of new academic disciplines historiographic reconstruction etc It has also led to a widespread discussion of a specifically Taiwanese cultural identity which is reflected in literature language art theatre and film The international workshop Transformation Innovation Taiwan in her Cultural Dimensions held at Ruhr University in Bochum from March 7th 9th 2001 set out to shed new light on these issues and generated an intensive discussion of potential new interdisciplinary approaches to cultural and literary research in the field of Taiwan studies 國際學術研討會, 2001

Taiwanese Literature as World Literature Pei-yin Lin, Wen-chi Li, 2022-12-15 Owing to Taiwan's multi ethnic nature and palimpsestic colonial past Taiwanese literature is naturally multilingual Although it can be analyzed through frameworks of Japanophone literature and Chinese literature and the more provocative Sinophone literature only through viewing Taiwanese literature as world literature can we redress the limits of national identity and fully examine writers transculturation practice globally minded vision and the politics of its circulation Throughout the colonial era Taiwanese writers gained inspiration from global literary trends mainly but not exclusively through the medium of Japanese and Chinese Modernism was the mainstream literary style in 1960s Taiwan and since the 1980s Taiwanese literature has demonstrated a unique trajectory shaped jointly by postmodernism and postcolonialism These movements exhibit Taiwanese writers creative adaptations of world literary thought as a response to their local and trans national reality During the postwar years Taiwanese literature began to be more systematically introduced to world readers through translation Over the past few decades Taiwanese authors and their translated works have participated in global conversations such as those on climate change the post truth era and ethnic and gender equality Bringing together scholars and translators from Europe North America and East Asia the volume focuses on three interrelated themes the framing and worlding ploys of Taiwanese literature Taiwanese writers experience of transculturation and politics behind translating Taiwanese literature The volume stimulates new ways of conceptualizing Taiwanese literature demonstrates
