Corps University Journal , Requiem for Reality Harry G. Hutchison,2023-02-14 Critical Race Theory like most ideologies before it promises an earthly paradise premised on ceaseless revolution but instead of delivering on this promise it produces a terrestrial hell echoing the inner nihilism of modern life Contemporary social justice movements just like progressivism the New Deal and post Civil War Southern Democrats place Westerners in bondage rather than delivering on the promise of unlimited freedom Requiem for Reality responds to the widening pendulum shifts of our age These developments consume and incense the nation These shifts offer a bewildering set of claims grounded in the presumption that race and other forms of human identity explain all forms of disparity and inequality Against such claims it is crucial to distinguish between a development narrative and a bias narrative for the purpose of explaining ethnic disparity The development narrative is grounded in data that often deliver unwelcome facts The facts show that Asian Americans as well as West Indian blacks often do better than white Americans in schooling per capita income and crime rates Indeed Syrian Americans Korean Americans Indonesian Americans Taiwanese Americans and Filipino Americans experience significantly higher median household incomes than whites and higher test scores lower incarceration rates and longer life expectancies Oblivious to such facts the bias narrative on the other hand grounds itself in the white privilege thesis suggesting that only race matters Surfacing from the toxic pit of ideology the bias narrative emphasizes the racist claim that African Americans are the only ethnic group in the world who cannot succeed under less than ideal conditions Separated from important facts this narrative often substitutes absolute Neo pagan certainties originating in a make believe world for commonplace notions of truth and reality As such the white privilege thesis rather than improving the conditions of African Americans and others offers a utopian dream that threatens to become a national nightmare The urgent pursuit of utopia reflects trends that are largely anthropological sociological and more spiritual than political Responding to these developments which have given rise to victimhood claims within gender and transgender categories will require more than argumentation rational analysis superior logic or even the inauguration of a Hanging Judge It will require courage because otherwise Chairman Mao's
