Markoosie Patsauq,2021-01-20 Fifty years ago Markoosie Patsauq then a bush pilot in his late twenties living in the tiny isolated High Arctic community of Resolute spent his spare time quietly writing a story that effectively emerged as the first Indigenous novel released in Canada Published in English under the title Harpoon of the Hunter in 1970 by McGill Queen s University Press that version of the story was Patsauq s own adaptation In the years that followed the widely acclaimed English edition was translated into many different languages but what has remained obscured until the present day is the Inuktitut text originally produced by the author In collaboration with Patsauq Valerie Henitiuk and Marc Antoine Mahieu have foregrounded the original Inuktitut text to inform their translations into both English and French This critical edition complete with the story in both Inuktitut syllabics and Latin script utilizes the author s handwritten manuscript as well as interviews with Patsauq to produce a new rigorous examination of this literary and cultural milestone This work also includes the first comprehensive account of the critical response to his writing while underscoring the way the much altered English adaptation from 1970 shaped that response A momentous achievement that situates a new classic in the twenty first century Hunter with Harpoon brings readers back to the roots of Markoosie Patsauq s Inuit story to experience it as it was originally written Bilingual Learners and Social Equity Ruth Harman,2017-08-13 This volume explores how educators
