A Siberian History of Soviet Film Caroline Damiens, 2024-10-03 In A Siberian History of Soviet Films Caroline Damiens combines a detailed analysis of key Soviet film and TV works such as Tymancha's Friend 1969 The Most Beautiful Ships 1972 Tracking the Wolverine 1978 and When the Whales Leave 1981 with primary sources like press articles archives and interviews In doing so she reveals how these cinematic portrayals were created and negotiated providing insight into the concepts of progress and authenticity in the Soviet context She emphasizes the role of indigenous individuals in shaping their cinematic image

both in front of and behind the camera highlighting the works of lesser known figures like Suntsai Geonka Zinaida Pikounova and Iurii Rytkheu In doing so Damiens emphasizes the multifaceted nature of film where interpretations differ based on the perspectives of those involved Acta academica ,2009 Black Lives in the English Archives, 1500-1677 Imtiaz Habib,2017-05-15 Containing an urgently needed archival database of historical evidence this volume includes both a consolidated presentation of the documentary records of black people in Tudor and Stuart England and an interpretive narrative that confirms and significantly extends the insights of current theoretical excursus on race in early modern England Here for the first time Imtiaz Habib collects the scattered references to black people whether from Africa India or America in sixteenth and seventeenth century England and arranges them into a systematic chronological descriptive index He offers an extended historical and theoretical interpretation of the records in six chapters which serve as an introductory guide to the index even as they articulate a specific argument about the meaning of the records Both the archival information and interpretive scholarship provide a strong framework from which future historical debates on race in early modern England can proceed Magazines for Libraries William A. Katz,2006 Canadian Who's Who 2009 Elizabeth Lumley,2008-12-04 Now in its ninety ninth year of publication this standard Canadian reference source contains the most comprehensive and authoritative biographical information on notable living Canadians Those listed are carefully selected because of the positions they hold in Canadian society or because of the contribution they have made to life in Canada The volume is updated annually to ensure accuracy and 600 new entries are added each year to keep current with developing trends and issues in Canadian society Included are outstanding Canadians from all walks of life politics media academia business sports and the arts from every area of human activity Each entry details birth date and place education family career history memberships creative works honours and awards and full addresses Indispensable to researchers students media business government and schools Canadian Who s Who is an invaluable source of general knowledge Marginal Lives & Painful Pasts Martin Botha,2007 Annual Report on English and American Studies ,2004 Virtual Diaspora, Postcolonial Literature and Feminism Ashmita Khasnabish,2022-12-16 This book analyses the resolution of the psychic problem of diasporic existence from a postcolonial feminist perspective by inscribing and defining the meaning of virtual diaspora through the lens of the East India and the West It explores the situation that arises when one leaves one s country and becomes an emigrant immigrant which often causes pain both in the departure from one s motherland and in the adaptation to a new environment The book employs the theory of Deleuze and Guattari and explores the interstices of real and virtual diaspora and the aftermath of diaspora as a mental journey Adding a new interpretation of transcendence taken from the Indian perspective the book examines the Deleuze s theory of immanence and transcendence and the two major concepts of becoming and real virtual The book also examines the works of Helene Cixous J M Coetzee Jhumpa Lahiri Kunal Basu and Tagore in light of the concept of virtual diaspora and from a postcolonial feminist angle It does so by raising the following questions When one has emigrated to a different country can one conceive of that existence as real or virtual or both Do emigrants or diasporic individuals live a life of both real and virtual diaspora This comes from the idea that both real and virtual diaspora under different paradigms may be related to the power struggle and master slave dialectic that affects all of humanity A valuable addition to the study of postcolonial literature the book will also be of interest to researchers in the fields of diaspora studies postcolonial feminist theory postcolonial literature feminist philosophy interdisciplinary studies and Asian Studies in particular South Asian Studies practices in Anglophone literatures addresses the power of images vision and visual aesthetics to regulate cultural visibility and modes of identification in an unevenly structured world The representation of visual practices in the imaginative realm of fiction opens up a zone in which established orders of the sayable and visible may be revised and transformed In 12 chapters the book examines narrative fiction by writers such as Michael Ondaatje Derek Walcott Salman Rushdie David Dabydeen and NoViolet Bulawayo who employ word image relations to explore the historically fraught links between visual practices and the experience of modernity in a transcultural context Against this conceptual background the examination of verbal visual relations will illustrate how Anglophone fiction models alternative modes of re presentation that reflect critically on hegemonic visual regimes and reach out for new more pluralized forms of exchange
