Google Maps Reddit Ideas:

Purpose-Driven Documentaries Robin Canfield, 2025-12-15 This book is a field guide for students and storytellers interested in the realm of social impact documentary. It explores best practices and processes for interacting with the documentary subject and framing the story of the subject in a way they find accommodating and aligned with their interests. This text will guide readers from step one of the documentary filmmaking process through to the completion of their short documentary film in an easy to understand, very repeatable process they can use and build on for the rest of their career. Beginning with the best practices for conducting comprehensive research and carrying out pre-production, the benefits of interacting with and getting to know your subject are then explored through multiple perspectives. This leads into a step-by-step framework for telling the subject's story, paired with real-life examples from film student projects overseen by the author, as well as example work such as Character Profiles, Purpose Statements, Interview Questions, and other references. This is an essential resource for students and documentary filmmakers who want to get a clear and concise understanding of how to approach social impact documentaries.

Herbalism: Your Essential Guide to Getting Started With Herbalism (Become Self-sufficient With Simple Homemade Natural Remedies for Everyday Health) Donald Horsley, 101-01-01 Feeling the roots of your heritage calling but unsure how to answer? Has the modern world left you disconnected from the ancestral wisdom that once guided your forebears? This compelling read invites you on a journey through the legacy of healing practices that have been a cornerstone of resilience and health in African American communities for generations. In an age where connection to our heritage and the natural world is more vital than ever, this book offers a path back to the origins of herbal wisdom. Inside, you'll explore essential safety guidelines and ethical harvesting practices, tools and techniques for setting up your own herbal workspace, detailed profiles of 20 must-know medicinal plants, guidance on cultivating, identifying, and preserving herbs, step-by-step instructions for making tinctures, teas, salves, and more, how to apply herbs to support common ailments naturally, the secrets of herbal synergy and smart formulations. Your kitchen is a treasure trove of herbal possibilities, and this book is your guide. Those spices lurking in your pantry are not just for cooking. Explore your home and grocery store for ingredients like honey, ginger, rosemary, and garlic—the real superheroes of the homemade medicine world. They're your secret keys to creating easy homemade herbal magic. Which herbs can you start experimenting with? What affordable medicines can you make? How can you use herbs to support your mind and body health?
