Creators Take Control Edward Lee,2023-03-28 A leading legal scholar offers a compelling new theory to explain the meteoric rise of non fungible tokens NFTs and their impact on art business entertainment and society and explains how they are revolutionizing our understanding of ownership If you buy an NFT do you own anything Critics say no Then why are people spending so much money to own them to the tune of 27 billion in 2021 And why are big businesses and venture capital firms investing hundreds of millions to develop NFTs for people s use in the metaverse a purely imaginary world In Creators Take Control Edward Lee offers a compelling new theory he calls Tokenism that answers these perplexing questions Using vivid examples Lee lucidly explains how NFTs operate and how they fundamentally change our understanding of ownership Tokenism is an artistic cultural and technological movement that creates value in a new kind of ownership of a new type of property symbolized by a virtual token through a process of technological abstraction and artificial scarcity effectuated by NFTs Ownership becomes virtual What Cubism did in radically changing the twentieth century perspective of creating and viewing art through cubes Tokenism does today in altering our perspective of owning art and other things through tokens Both movements radically reimagine what's possible Creators and businesses have seized upon this profound transformation In a short time they have developed a new market for digital art important new rights for creators innovative business models based on decentralized collaboration and a new type of interactive ownership that enables identity community and patronage through NFTs These innovations are just the start of revolutionary changes to society Lee shows how NFTs create a new form of decentralized intellectual property or De IP Comparable to the movement to decentralized finance DeFi De IP empowers creators to take control of their artistic productions and livelihood Lee's intellectual tour de force is filled with practical insights and hope for fostering creativity and a Virtual Renaissance for the ages

Stewart,Patricia O'Connell,2016-11-29 In this pioneering guide two business authorities introduce the new discipline of Service Design and reveal why trying new strategies for pleasing customers isn t enough to differentiate your business it needs to be designed for service from the ground up Woo Wow and Win reveals the importance of designing your company around service and offers clear practical strategies based on the idea that the design of services is markedly different than manufacturing Bestselling authors and business experts Thomas A Stewart and Patricia O Connell contend that most companies both digital and brick and mortar B2B or B2C are not designed for service to provide an experience that matches a customer s expectations with every interaction and serves the company s needs When customers have more choices than ever before study after study reveals that it s the experience that makes the difference To provide great experiences that keep customers coming back businesses must design their services with as much care as their products Service Design is proactive it is about delivering on your promise to customers in accordance with your strategy not about acceding to customer dictates Woo Wow and Win teaches you how to create Ahhh moments when the customer makes a positive judgment and to avoid Ow moments when you lose a sale or worse customer trust

Whether you're giving a haircut selling life insurance or managing an office building your customer is as much a part of your business as your employees are. Together you and customers create a bank of trust fueled by knowledge of each other's skills and preferences. This is Customer Capital the authors explain and it is jointly owned. But it's up to you to manage it profitably. Innovative yet grounded in real world examples, Woo, Wow and Win is the key strategy for winning customers and keeping them.
