Lowes Ideas:

Lowe's: Creative Ideas for Outdoor Living Lowe's,2003-03-01 The first in a series of books based on our popular magazine Lowe's Creative Ideas For Your Home Garden The University at War, 1914-25 T. Irish,2015-04-24 Drawing on examples from Britain France and the United States this book examines how scholars and scholarship found themselves mobilized to solve many problems created by modern warfare in World War I and the many consequences of this for higher education which have lasted almost a century The Oxford Handbook of Samuel Taylor Coleridge Frederick Burwick,2012-02-23 A practical and comprehensive reference work the Oxford Handbook provides the best single volume source of original scholarship on all aspects of Coleridge's diverse writings Thirty seven chapters bringing together the wisdom of experts from across the world present an authoritative in depth and up to date assessment of a major author of British Romanticism The book is divided into sections on Biography Prose Works Poetic Works Sources and Influences and Reception The Coleridge scholar today has ready access to a range of materials previously available only in library archives on both sides of the Atlantic The Bollingen edition of the Collected Works of Samuel Taylor Coleridge forty years in production was completed in 2002 The Coleridge Notebooks 1957 2002 were also produced during this same period five volumes of text with an additional five companion volumes of notes The Clarendon Press of Oxford published the letters in six volumes 1956 1971 To take full advantage of the convenient access and new insight provided by these volumes the Oxford Handbook examines the entire range and complexity of Coleridge's career It analyzes the many aspects of Coleridge's literary critical philosophical and theological pursuits and it furnishes both students and advanced scholars with the proper tools for assimilating and illuminating Coleridge's rich and varied accomplishments as well as offering an authoritative guide to the most up to date thinking about his achievements Lowe's Creative Ideas for Home and Garden Makeovers Sunset Publishing,2006 If you don't love the spaces you inhabit every day it may be time for a makeover Here's the place to start This gallery of real life makeovers offers lots of ideas and advice for turning ho hum spaces into rooms you'll love Each chapter focuses on a separate room of the house and each makeover offers ideas for increasing usability and evoking your own personal style It's all filled with the same practical information you'll find in Lowe's Creative Ideas for Home and Garden magazine Researching and Writing Across the Curriculum Christine A. Hult,2002 This thorough and complete guide is an essential reference in teaching research and writing in the humanities sciences social sciences and business Presents comprehensive coverage of both primary and secondary research methods In depth outlines of model research projects in each discipline help readers see the similarities and differences between research in the four discipline areas Details the latest MLA and APA documentation formats for electronic sources Contains a complete listing of library resources by discipline including computerized databases Features in chapter exercises and discussion questions Features a new section on critical thinking in Chapter 1 relating the inquiry process to critical thinking skills For those interested in enhancing their research skills The Journal of Philology, 1892 A Guide to Literary Criticism and Research Bonnie Klomp Stevens, Larry L. Stewart, 1996 Like the first two editions of A Guide to Literary Criticism and Research this edition is based both on a recognition of a practical need felt in many literature courses and a view of literary study. It attempts to meet the practical need by offering upper level students a condensed but adequate guide to the range of modern criticism and to basic methods of research. In addition it is a hope that the book will give students a more comprehensive view of literary study by helping them to recognize criticism and research as two closely linked parts of a single process Lowe's Creative Ideas for Kids' Spaces Lowe's (Firm), 2005 Take kid friendly to a whole new level with Lowes Creative Ideas for Kids Spaces based on Lowes highly successful Creative Ideas for Your Home Garden magazine. The book goes way beyond the basics providing well thought out design space and storage solutions for kids of all ages. Great photos help you plan the best bedrooms study areas and indoor and outside play spaces for the kid in your life Roman Law and the Idea of Europe Kaius Tuori, Heta Björklund, 2018-12-27 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com. It is funded by the European Research Council. Roman law is widely considered to be the foundation of European legal culture and an inherent source of unity within European law. Roman Law and the Idea of Europe explores the emergence of this idea of Roman law as an idealized shared heritage tracing its origins among exiled German scholars in Britain during the Nazi regime. The book follows the spread and influence of these ideas in Europe after the war as part of the larger enthusiasm for European unity. It argues that the rise of the importance of Roman law was a reaction against the crisis of jurisprudence in the face of Nazi ideas of racial and ultranationalistic law leading to the establishment of the idea of Europe founded on shared legal principles. With contributions from leading academics in the field as well as established younger scholars this volume will be of immense interests to anyone studying intellectual history, legal history, political history and Roman law in the context of Europe Robert Frost and Northern Irish Poetry Rachel Buxton, 2004-05-27 In this incisive and highly readable study Rachel Buxton offers a much needed assessment of Frost's significance for Northern Irish poetry of the past half century. Drawing upon a diverse range of previously unpublished archival sources including juvenilia, correspondence and drafts of poems Robert Frost and Northern Irish Poetry takes as its particular focus the triangular dynamic of Frost, Seamus Heaney and Paul Muldoon. Buxton explores the differing strengths which each Irish poet finds in Frost's work while Heaney is drawn primarily to the Frost persona and to the sound of sense. It is the studied slyness and wryness of the American's poetry the complicating undertow which Muldoon values. This appraisal of Frost in a non American context not only enables a fuller appreciation of Heaney's and Muldoon's poetry but also provides valuable insight into the nature of trans national and trans generational poetic influence. Engaging with the politics of Irish American literary connections while providing a subtle analysis of the intertextual relationships between these three key twentieth century poets Robert Frost and Northern Irish Poetry is a pioneering work The Texture of Internet Santiago

Posteguillo, María José Esteve, M. Lluïsa Gea Valor, 2007 Internet and Information and Communication Technologies represent the largest network of human online communication ever. Language is the material that enables communication to flow in this ever growing digital world of emails, webs, blogs and SMS messages. And language as always transforms itself to meet the rapid demands of this virtual universe. As a result, a myriad of changes have occurred and are continuously occurring in the language of Internet users. The Texture of Internet explores the latest linguistic issues regarding these language transformations focusing on texting, email writing, website texture, new digital genres such as blogs and the potential applications of Internet to specific linguistic professional settings e.g. translation, linguistic research or language teaching. This book will become a key reference for anyone interested in unveiling the intricacies of language use in our technological environment.

Santiago Posteguillo, María José Esteve and Lluïsa Gea Valor have compiled an excellent set of contributions from Spain, United Kingdom and Hong Kong on the analysis of language use in Internet and Information and Communication Technologies. They all are researchers and teachers of Languages for Specific Purposes and Linguistics at Universitat Jaume I in Castellón, Spain. Their experience in Internet language analysis has produced a most valuable volume on the matter.
