The Joy of Knowing Christ Pope Benedict XVI,2009-01-06 As Pope Benedict XVI notes in the first meditation in this collection knowing that there is a God who is good who knows us who is so near to us is truly the gospel the good news that brings us joy These fifty five reflections on passages from the gospels taken from the pope s homilies and Angelus messages over the first three years of his papacy reveal Benedict s passionate love for Christ his depth of faith his grasp of Scripture and his perspective on the challenges facing us as Christians in the world today Pope Benedict is a brilliant theologian and scholar but first and foremost he is a pastor and this is evident in every meditation in this collection A strong advocate of lectio divina the prayerful reading of the Scriptures Pope Benedict shows us how much nourishment and inspiration we can derive from meditating on the word of God

Prayers and Meditations on the Life of Christ Thomas a Kempis,Aeterna Press,1904 In his dedication¹ of the first English translation of this book To the Verie Venerable His most honored deare Lady Marie Tredway First Abesse of Sion Canonesses Regulars of S Augustins Order established at Paris And to her vertuous daughters the Rev Thomas Carre for forty years their chaplain wrote thus I tooke the libertie in the year 1636 To addresse unto you the following of Christ under the name of Thomas of Kempis your brother where I told you that if that truth should chance to be contested you should rather use prescription than process. I now return to you again with another present of the same Author and brother which is contested by none. Aeterna Press Meditations on the Christ Romano Guardini, 2014-09-23

These pages don't tell you what Jesus did you know that already. Instead they take you into the mind and heart of the Son of God in a way you may not have thought possible. You'll come to understand the inner logic of Jesus' ministry, why Jesus' life had to take the course it took, why He couldn't have been the earthly king many were expecting and why He couldn't have conformed to the conventional ideas of a warrior, a hero or even just a successful man. You'll even see why He had to be abandoned by everyone including His disciples yet His Father remained close to Him, then just as He remains close to you now. Your new insight into why Jesus chose His own particular paths will illuminate the paths He is choosing for you now and will help you stay on those paths with gratitude and joy. Let your newfound knowledge of Jesus blossom into joy as directed by these pages you open yourself to the One whose whole being will resound in your heart and will nourish your soul.

Meditations on the Sufferings of Christ. From the German ... Abridged and improved by ... S. Benson Johann Jacob Rambach, 1827 Christian Meditation Hans Urs von Balthasar, 2011-10-12 While von Balthasar's classic Prayer is unparalleled in its development of the Trinitarian, Christological, Mariological and ecclesiological dimensions of prayer, Christian Meditation is a short, readable and eminently practical guide to that form of prayer which God's revelation in Jesus Christ has made indispensable: meditation on the word of God, revealing the inner depths of God to man and since it comes from God, made man, the inner depths of man to himself. In a treatment that is both fresh and profound, Balthasar describes the central elements of all Christian meditation, provides a guide for making the meditation and then points the way to the union that prayer achieves in the footsteps of Mary within the Church and in and for the world. Consequently, Christian meditation is entirely Trinitarian and at the same time entirely human. In order to find God, no one need reject being human, personally or socially, but in order to find God, all must see the world and themselves in the Holy Spirit as they are in God's sight. Hans Urs von Balthasar Moment of Christ John Main, 1984 In this simple guide to contemplative meditation, Main talks about the many aspects of silent prayer: the way of the mantra, leaving distraction behind and fullness of life in love and silence. A striking feature of the book is its emphasis on simplicity, on transcending self-consciousness and moving beyond techniques of prayer. Meditations on the Life and Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ Johannes Tauler, 1904

MEDITATIONS ON LIFE AND LIVING? BORN OUT OF LOVE FOR GOD Elois Wilform-Malcolm, 2014 Meditations on Life and Living Born Out of Love for God are basic but simple testimonials in story format with Scripture as the catalyst and theme for their birth. How many times have you sat alone somewhere just reflecting on the simplicity of life, how blessed you are from where you came compared to where you are now? Author Elois Wilform-Malcolm brings these everyday things to life. It will seem as though you are right there by her side, witnessing what she does in her own mind, seeing, feeling, understanding her point of view as she correlates biblical Scriptures into her reflections and how your understanding of Scripture can be a driving force for your own life. Meditations on Life and Living Born Out of Love for God will allow you to relive your past, reflect on the glory of your present, and marvel at your future when you realize the joy, happiness, contentment, and peace of mind you attain through a life with God. You will see where you were before salvation, understand who you are in your salvation, and strive to be even better through salvation. You will see how Scriptures are being brought to light through everyday life situations. Wait till you read catchy titles such as Throw Down Your Rocks, The Fragrance of Christ, or Wake Up Everybody. You will find excitement in the directions each testimonial meditation will take you. Reading these meditations will bring about purpose for studying the Bible, which is not to know the Bible but to know God. The Bible is not a book of rules but a book of principles which are clearly and simply brought out through these meditations. We get to know God through His Word, His spirit, our experiences, and through prayer. May you be blessed.

MEDITATIONS ON THE LIFE AND PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST JOHANNES. TAULER, 2018

The Fire of Christ's Love Father Raniero Cantalamessa OFM Cap, 2012-01-01. Why should we meditate on the cross? Because through the cross of Christ we can begin to comprehend God's all-consuming love for us. The short reflections in this book are taken from homilies presented by renounced evangelist Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa on Good Friday in St. Peter's Basilica. Fr. Cantalamessa, who has been the preacher of the Papal Household since 1980, unfolds for us the mystery and the power of the cross. By willingly embracing the cross for our sake and then rising from the dead, Jesus has brought us salvation, healing, mercy, and the hope of eternal life. As Fr. Cantalamessa contemplates the intensity and reality of Christ's love for us, he also shows us how to respond wholeheartedly with that same fire in our hearts.

Love Set Free Martin Lee Smith, 2011-01-01. We think of love as being selfless and unsullied, but when is it not mixed up with something else, such as the desire to possess, the need to control, the need to be needed, or the instinct to foster our own self-interest? In these meditations on the Passion narratives in John's Gospel, Martin L. Smith shows how in the Christian mystery, love as we often understand it must die in order to be reborn as the grace of communion, as love set free. As Mary, the mother of Jesus, and the Beloved Disciple pledge themselves to each other's care at the foot of the cross, we see Jesus' new commandment that we love one another placed directly in the vortex of his death and self-offering. Here all sentimental or selfish notions of love are transformed. As the Beloved Disciple takes Mary into his home, this book shows us a model household of faith from which the church's authentic identity derives its origin.
