from the seventh through the fifteenth centuries and of Northern New Spain's indigenous peoples whose art influenced the designs of occupying Europeans. Sanctuaries of Earth, Stone, and Light is a pathbreaking book featuring 200 stunning photographs and over 300 illustrations ranging from ceremonial garments to detailed floor plans of the churches.

Oliver, Gisela (von Kerssenbrock.), 2007 A prized possession of the Cistercian convent of Marienbrunn in Rulle near Osnabruck in northern Germany was its richly illuminated gradual dating to c 1300 which is of great significance in the history of medieval art for several reasons. With 52 historiated initials iconographically complex in their literary quotations from the liturgy the manuscript ranks as one of the most lavishly decorated books of its type to survive. Painted in an elegant courtly Gothic style it is ascribed in a prefatory inscription to the nun Gisela von Kerssenbrock who wrote, notated and decorated the manuscript with golden letters and beautiful images. Such an encyclopedic listing of a scribe artist's labors is unparalleled in medieval scribal colophons. The high quality of the miniatures ranks her among the most gifted women artists of the Middle Ages. Gisela is depicted in two self portraits within the manuscript in one of which she is leading the nuns of Rulle in singing the Christmas hymn visual evidence that she was the choirmistress at this convent. The manuscript's images reflect the intellectual ambience of encloistered nuns who were steeped in the annual liturgical cycle of feasts with its associated bible readings theological commentary sermons music dramatic ritual and artistic decoration. As it was used in the nuns daily celebration of the mass the book is an eloquent witness of the communal religious life of medieval women rather than their private meditations or mystical experiences. This study explores the imagery and texts associated with major feasts of the liturgical year and the novel ways in which music and text are woven into the artistic program of Gisela's manuscript. In particular, her book shows the seminal importance of the Easter celebration for convent life as well; over half of its illustrations are clustered in the Easter season and the manuscript repeatedly gives artistic expression to the nuns' hopes of heaven.
