

Memoir Brainstorming

Answer the following questions to give you some ideas of an event to focus on as you write your memoir.

Describe where you live. What does it look like? What does it smell like? What does it feel like? What spot in that place do you like to be in the most?

What are the most important people in your family?

What phrases, words, or sayings are important to you or to members of your family?

What foods are important to you or your family? Do you make them or buy them? What do you eat them?

Describe a significant lesson you have learned in your life. What happened to help you learn that lesson?

What are some beliefs that you or your family hold?

List three important childhood memories.

What do you and your family/friends do for fun?
