Mentor Texts For Small Moments:

Mentor Texts Lynne R. Dorfman, Rose Cappelli, 2017 It's been a decade since Lynne Dorfman and Rose Cappelli wrote the first edition of Mentor Texts and helped teachers across the country make the most of high quality children's literature in their writing instruction. In the second edition of this important book Lynne and Rose show teachers how to help students become confident accomplished writers by using literature as their foundation. The second edition includes brand new Your Turn Lessons built around the gradual release of responsibility model offering suggestions for demonstrations and shared or guided writing. Reflection is emphasized as a necessary component to understanding why mentor authors chose certain strategies literary devices sentence structures and words. Lynne and Rose offer new children's book titles in each chapter and in a carefully curated and annotated Treasure Chest. At the end of each chapter a Think About It Talk About It Write About It section invites reflection and conversation with colleagues. The book is organized around the characteristics of good writing focus content organization style and conventions. Rose and Lynne write in a friendly and conversational style employing numerous anecdotes to help teachers visualize the process and offer strategies that can be immediately implemented in the classroom. This practical resource demonstrates the power of learning to read like writers.

Writing Lesson Level

3--Narrowing Ideas to Topics Richard Gentry, Ph.D., Jan McNeel, M.A.Ed., 2014-02-01 Incorporate writing instruction in your classroom as an essential element of literacy development while implementing best practices. Simplify the planning of writing instruction and become familiar with the Common Core State Standards of Writing. Getting to the Core of Writing: Essential Lessons for Every Third Grade Student Richard Gentry, Jan McNeel, 2012-06-01 Inspire students to develop as writers in the third grade classroom with these engaging and creative writing lessons. This classroom tested resource shows positive results in students writing and simplifies the planning of writing instruction. It contains detailed information on how to establish and manage daily Writer's Workshop and includes consistent structured instruction to encourage students to actively participate in the writing process. Specific lessons to help students develop the traits of quality writing are also included.

Bridging the Gap Lesley Roessing, 2014-07-30 One of the most popular literary genres memoir can provide literary and literacy access to reluctant adolescent readers and writers and help bridge the achievement gap by motivating students to read more critically and write more meaningfully about what matters most to them. The introspective nature of memoir helps students learn about themselves and connect with their environment or community while also meeting a variety of Common Core standards. In this way memoirs and creative nonfiction can provide a bridge between fiction and nonfiction reading narrative and informative writing reading and writing and can afford a way in to literacy for all adolescents. Special features of the book examples of multiple mentor texts in each chapter teacher examples with think aloud exercises a variety of student samples from diverse learners activities to engage all learners an appendix of teacher resources a reference list of over 150 full length memoirs for grades 5-12 for whole class book club or independent reading a list of writing resources for students and teachers 12 full size reproducible materials for teacher and student use a variety of reading writing speaking and listening strategies and activities across disciplines applications and adaptations for diverse learners daily writing focus lessons in gradual release responsibility format Common Core State Standard connections at the end of each chapter

More Mirrors in the Classroom Jane Fleming, Susan Catapano, Candace M. Thompson, Sandy Ruvalcaba Carrillo, 2016-06-08 Nearly 30% of all public school children attend school in large or mid size cities totaling more than 16 million students in 22 000 schools For schools serving culturally and linguistically diverse populations and large numbers of children living in poverty a significant achievement gap persists Proponents of multicultural education often advocate for instruction with culturally relevant texts to promote inclusion compassion and understanding of our increasingly diverse society Less discussion has focused on the significant body of research that suggests that culturally relevant texts have important effects on language and literacy development By connecting the dots of existing research More Mirrors in the Classroom raises awareness about the critical role that urban children's literature can play in helping children learn to read and write In addition it provides practical step by step advice for increasing the cultural relevance of school curricula in order to accelerate literacy learning
