Mine Own Executioner:

Mine Own Executioner, by Nigel Balchin Nigel Balchin, Mine Own Executioner Nigel Balchin, 1945 Mine Own Executioner. (Third Impression.). Nigel Marlin BALCHIN, 1965 Veteran Poetics Catherine Mary McLoughlin, 2018-05-24 Illustrates how war veterans have been used in British literature since the 1790s to explore being knowing and storytelling

Mine Own Executioner Nigel Marlin Balchin, 2023-09-13 Felix Milne is a London psychoanalyst whose clientele usually consists of bed wetting children mousy typists with secret pasts and affluent middle aged women who are bored with their husbands But then along comes Adam Lucian a former Spitfire pilot who has recently tried to murder his wife Molly With the aid of a narcotic drug Milne forces Lucian to relive his brutal treatment at the hands of the Japanese during World War Two Feeling much better having done so and convinced that he is now cured Lucian refuses any further analysis Reluctantly Milne lets his patient go only to receive a telephone call the next day informing him that Lucian has shot Molly and gone on the run Far more than just an exciting fast moving thriller Mine Own Executioner also provides a fascinating historical insight into the state of the psychiatric profession in 1940s Britain Praise for Mine Own Executioner the most extraordinary exploration of the human condition Philippa Gregory Radio 4 an exceptionally good novel John Betjeman Daily Herald admirably written Elizabeth Bowen Tatler and Bystander a triumphant success the kind of success that makes one want to clap L P Hartley Sketch

The British Trauma Film Adam Plummer, 2023-04-20 While the historical influence of psychoanalysis on Hollywood cinema has received considerable attention the same cannot be said for its influence on British cinema This book examines the central position that psychoanalysis occupies in British cinema in the years immediately following the Second World War Plummer uses a critical theory framework to understand the role that psychoanalysis plays in British culture at this time as an historical discourse and in British cinema as a narrative a cultural and an ideological discourse He defines these as arising within various areas of contemporary psychoanalytic thinking related to traumatic wartime experience sexual difference and the interplay between subjectivity and objectivity He analyzes six British films of the period The Halfway House Dead of Night The Seventh Veil Madonna of the Seven Moons They Made Me a Fugitive and Mine Own Executioner and demonstrates how psychoanalysis operates within them as a narrative and formal structuring mechanism He argues that this engagement enables these films to begin to address the emotional fallout of the war by creating safe representational spaces where contemporary audiences could engage with their own traumatic experiences While The British Trauma Film defines psychoanalysis as providing a language for British cinema at this time to confront the effects of wartime trauma it finds that it also operates within a normalizing ideological system designed to reproduce dominant pre war relations of political social and sexual power However in this group of films this system is often countered by subversive discursive forces that seem to be immanent to the films themselves Mine Own Executioner Nigel 1908-1970 Balchin, 2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the
