Reconstructing Exhibitions in Art Institutions Natasha Adamou,Michaela Giebelhausen,2023-07-13 Reconstructing Exhibitions in Art Institutions spans exhibition histories as anti apartheid activism within South African community arts collectivities and trade unions in Argentina Civil Rights movements and Black communities in Baltimore institutional self critique within the neoliberal museum reframing feminisms in USA and revisiting Cold War Modernisms in Eastern Europe among other themes An interdisciplinary project with a global reach this edited volume considers the theme of exhibitions as political resistance as well as cultural critique from global perspectives including South Africa Latin America Eastern Europe USA and West Europe The book includes contributions by ten authors from the fields of art history social sciences anthropology museum studies provenance research curating and exhibition histories The edited volume finally examines exhibition reconstructions both as a symptom of advanced capitalism geopolitical dynamics and social uprisings and as a critique of imperial and capitalist violence Art historical areas covered in the book include conceptualism minimalism modern painting global modernisms archives and community arts This volume will be of interest to a wide range of audiences including art historians curators gallery studies and museum professionals and also to scholars and students from the fields of anthropology ethnography sociology and history It would also appeal to a general public with an interest in modern and contemporary art exhibitions

Too Jewish or Not Jewish Enough Jeffrey Abt, 2024-02-02 Displays of Jewish ritual objects in public non Jewish settings by Jews are a comparatively recent phenomenon So too is the establishment of Jewish museums This volume explores the origins of the Jewish Museum of New York and its evolution from collecting and displaying Jewish ritual objects to Jewish art to exhibiting avant garde art devoid of Jewish content created by non Jews Established within a rabbinic seminary the museum s formation and development reflect changes in Jewish society over the twentieth century as it grappled with choices between religion and secularism particularism and universalism and ethnic pride and assimilation
