Intended Audience This is an ideal text for undergraduate courses in introductory sociology such as Introduction to Sociology and Principles of Sociology. The Engaged Sociologist: Connecting the Classroom to the Community brings the public sociology movement into the classroom as it teaches students to use the tools of sociology to become effective participants in our democratic society. Through exercises and projects, authors Kathleen Korgen and Jonathan M. White encourage students to practice the application of these tools in order to get both hands on training in sociology and experience with civic engagement in their communities.

Key Features Connects the classroom to the community. Chapters relate the key topics covered in Introduction to Sociology and Social Problems courses to civic engagement exercises. Provides fun, interesting and easy ways to learn the tools of sociology. Each chapter contains both hands-on data collection exercises, e.g. surveys, interviews, observations, and library-based research. Offers a global perspective. Each chapter contains at least one international example on the subject area, connecting students to the global as well as local and national communities. Illustrates how students can influence society. An Engaged Sociologist section highlights a sociologist or sociology student working on an issue presented in the chapter. Entices students to become more active, effective citizens. The book suggests specific actions students can take in their community, such as throwing a fundraiser, participating in actions via the web, organizing a forum on campus, etc.

Additional Resources For Professors: Sample chapters on Culture, Family, and the Economy, and Race and Ethnicity. A sample syllabus for using this text in an Intro to Sociology course. Interested in chapter-by-chapter test banks? Contact your sales rep at textsales@sagepub.com or by calling 1-866-434-2577. Verification of adoption of this text required to receive test bank.

For Students: Research guidelines. Links to websites and peer-reviewed articles related to the topics covered in each of the chapters. Exercises linked to Research and Ethics, Chapter 3, and other exercises. A survey scoring sheet, interview guidelines, and more for Chapter 12. Resources for Civic Engagement, Organizations, Job and Volunteer Opportunities, and more.
