transferred to the Spanish in the 1763 Treaty of Paris and sold to the United States in 1803 the city's culture, law, architecture, food, music, and language share the influence of all three countries. This cultural mélange also manifests in the city's approach to sport where each game is steeped in the city's history. Tracing that history from the early nineteenth century to the present while also surveying the state of the city's sports historiography. New Orleans Sports places sport in the context of race, relations, politics, and civic and business development to expand that historiography currently dominated by a text that stops at 1900 into the twentieth century offering a modern examination of sports in the city. Congressional Quarterly Weekly Report, 1984. Encyclopedia of Associations: pt. 1-2. National Organizations of the U.S. Frederick G. Ruffner (Jr.), Margaret Fisk, 1983. A comprehensive list of national organizations described briefly with names, addresses, and telephone numbers. Associations keep track of industry data for their members and may have valuable information on an industry that would not be found in standard business sources. Indexes include name of organization, key word, and geographic area. The Blue Book of College Athletics for Senior, Junior & Community Colleges, 2000. The college handbook. College Board, 1994-08. Now in its 32nd popular year, this invaluable guide provides complete, detailed information on all two and four year colleges in America. This edition features expanded information on the new SAT and other topics of vital interest to families and students selecting a college. Still the best resource of its kind. Randax Education Guide. The Standard Periodical Directory, 1977. This directory may be used to identify specialized trade journals as possible sources of business information or advertising. The College Handbook. College Entrance Examination Board, 1999. Presents information on 4 year colleges and universities and 2 year community colleges and technical schools. U.S. News & World Report, 1982. Coach & Athlete, 1978.
