

OTHELLO

Othello is a Christian Moor and the general of the Venetian army. As the play's leading character, he is portrayed as honest, powerful, and brave. However, as a tragic hero, he harbours significant character flaws which undermine his virtues.

Othello's early life is characterised by hardship and adventure, elements he recounts in his narratives to the Venetian court and Desdemona. He speaks of being taken as a slave, which led to his exposure to various cultures and experiences, and his eventual rise to prominence: "The battles, sieges, fortunes that I have passed" (Act 1, Scene 3).

His African heritage and experience with slavery are crucial to understanding his character. Othello often regards himself as a foreigner, especially with derogatory references such as "an old black ram" directed at him, which sometimes makes him insecure about his differences from the natives.

As a valiant and fierce warrior, Othello is respected by his men and makes intelligent decisions shaped by a life of hardship - he is a very successful war general, and is appointed to lead a Venetian army in Cyprus against the Ottoman Empire.

Othello's relationship with Desdemona begins with mutual admiration and love. Desdemona is captivated by Othello's tales of bravery and hardship, which she finds deeply romantic and inspiring. Othello, in turn, is drawn to Desdemona's purity,

Study Guide The Wordsmith Guides, 2019-09-09 The Commentary scholarly in its focus yet informal in its tone explores the text's significant detail in order to bring out its full meaning and meanings. It takes students and general readers through the play line by line and asks along the way a succession of penetrating questions as a means of clarifying what's really being said by the characters why they do what they do and why Shakespeare has them speak and act in those ways. It provides specific support for students working towards examinations within a range of assessment structures at both high school and college level but it will be enjoyed by all lovers of Shakespeare.
