Conference Proceedings ,1987 Measurement Madness Dina Gray,Pietro Micheli,Andrey Pavlov,2014-11-20 A clearer more accurate performance management strategy Over the past two decades performance measurement has profoundly changed societies organizations and the way we live and work We can now access incredible quantities of data display review and report complex information in real time and monitor employees and processes in detail But have all these investments in collecting analysing and reporting data helped companies governments and people perform better Measurement Madness is an engaging read full of anecdotes so peculiar you ll hardly believe them Each one highlights a performance measurement initiative that went wrong explains why and most importantly shows you how to avoid making the same mistake yourself The dangers of poorly designed performance measurement are numerous and even the best how to guides don t explain how to avoid them Measurement Madness fills in the gap showing how to ensure you re measuring the right things rewarding the behaviours that deserve rewarding and interpreting results in a way that will improve things rather than complicate them This book will help you to recognize correct and even avoid common performance measurement problems including Measuring for the sake of measuring Assuming that measurement is an instant fix for performance issues Comparing sets of data that have nothing in common and hoping to learn something Using targets and rewards to promote certain behaviours and achieving exactly the opposite ones Reading Measurement Madness will enable you to design a simple effective performance measurement system which will have the intended result of creating value in your organization

Notes ,1991 Transforming Performance Measurement Dean R. Spitzer, You can t accurately gauge your company s performance if you don t know what or how to measure It s no secret that you can t improve your organization s performance without measuring it In fact every function unit process and the organization as a whole is built and run according to the parameters and expectations of its measurement system So you d better make sure you re doing it right All too often performance measurement creates dysfunction whether among individuals teams or across entire divisions and companies Most traditional measurement systems actually encourage unhealthy competition for personal gain creating internal conflict and breeding distrust of performance measurement Transforming Performance Measurement presents a breakthrough approach that will not only significantly reduce those dysfunctions but also promote alignment with business strategy maximize cross enterprise integration and help everyone to work collaboratively to drive value throughout your organization Performance improvement thought leader Dean Spitzer explains why performance measurement should be less about calculations and analysis and more about the crucial social factors that determine how well the measurements get used His socialization of measurement process focuses on learning and improvement from measurement and on the importance of asking such questions as How well do our measures reflect our business model How successfully are they driving our strategy What should we be measuring and not measuring Are the right people having the right measurement discussions Performance measurement is a dynamic process that calls for an awareness of the balance necessary between seemingly disparate ideas the technical and the social aspects of performance measurement For example you need technology to manage the flood of data but you must make sure that it supports the people who will be making decisions and taking action crucial to your organization s success This book shows you how to design that technical social balance into your measurement system While it is urgent to start taking action now transforming your organization s performance measurement system will take time Transforming Performance Measurement gives you assessment tools to gauge where you are now and a roadmap for moving with little or no disruption to a more transformational and mature measurement system The book also provides 34 TMAPs Transform Measuring Performance in Public and Nonprofit Organizations Theodore H. Poister,2003-08-16 In recent years a commitment to increased accountability and improved performance has become essential in both governmental agencies and nonprofit organizations To help managers and executives in their ongoing quest for greater accountability and improved performance Theodore H Poister offers a comprehensive resource for designing and implementing effective performance measurement systems at the agency level The ideas tools and processes in this vital resource will help organizations develop measurement systems to support such results oriented management approaches as strategic management results based budgeting performance management process improvement performance contracting and employee incentive systems Using this book as a guide public and nonprofit organizations can accurately measure outputs efficiency productivity effectiveness service quality and customer satisfaction and use the resulting data to strengthen decision making and improve agency and program performance Read a Charity Channel review <http://charitychannel.com> publish templates a 36 z 25 Team Metrics Mike Woodcock,2017-07-05 Mike Woodcock and Dave Francis are two of the most influential writers and designers of materials for team development of the last 30 years This collection of Team Metrics brings together some of their very best material for measuring aspects of team performance The collection includes a variety of audits questionnaires and surveys which can be used in a training environment or as real time team interventions The 27 items in the collection cover team and team leader skills team development team motivation team roles team culture climate and communication making this a must have collection of team development materials for trainers facilitators and team leaders A CD is supplied with every manual which provides a Powerpoint slide presentation for each of the 27 metrics
