Falk,Lynn D. Dierking,2018-10-16 This is the second edition of John H Falk and Lynn D Dierking s ground breaking book Learning from Museums While the book still focuses on why how what when and with whom people learn from their museum experiences the authors further investigate the extension of museums beyond their walls and the changing perceptions of the roles that museums increasingly play in the 21st century with respect to the publics they serve and those they would like to serve This new edition offers an updated and synthesized version of the Contextual Model of Learning as well as the latest advances in free choice learning research theory and practice in order to provide readers a highly readable and informative understanding of the personal sociocultural and physical dimensions of the museum experience Falk and Dierking also fill in gaps in the 1st edition Falk s research focuses increasingly on the self related needs that museums meet and these findings enhance the personal context chapter Dierking s work delves deeply into the macro sociocultural dimensions of learning a topic not discussed in the sociocultural chapter in the first edition Emphasizing the importance of time and space the second edition adds an entirely new chapter to describe the important dimension of time They also insert findings from the burgeoning field of neuroscience Latter chapters of the book discuss the evolving role of museums in the rapidly changing Information Learning Society of the 21st century New examples and suggestions highlight the ways that the new understandings of learning can help museum practitioners reinvent how museums can and should support the public s lifelong life wide and life deep learning Creating Exhibits That Engage John Summers,2018-03-02 Winner of the 2018 Ontario Museum Association Award of Excellence Winner of the 2019 Canadian Museum Association Award of Outstanding Achievement in the Research Cultural Heritage Category Creating Exhibits that Engage A Manual for Museums and Historical Organizations is a concise useful guide to developing effective and memorable museum exhibits The book is full of information guidelines tips and concrete examples drawn from the author s years of experience as a curator and exhibit developer in the United States and Canada Is this your first exhibit project You will find step by step instructions useful advice and plenty of examples Are you a small museum or local historical society looking to improve your exhibits This book will take you through how to define your audience develop a big idea write the text manage the budget design the graphics arrange the gallery select artifacts and fabricate install and evaluate the exhibit Are you a museum studies student wanting to learn about the theory and practice of exhibit development This book combines both and includes references to works by noted authors in the field Written in a clear and accessible style Creating Exhibits that Engage offers checklists of key points at the end of each chapter a glossary of specialized terms and photographs drawings and charts illustrating key concepts and techniques The Museum as a Place for Learning Herbert F. Johnson Museum of Art,2001 The Edinburgh Review ,1897 Identity and the Museum Visitor Experience John H Falk,2016-06-16 Drawing upon a career in studying museum visitors renowned researcher John Falk attempts to create a predictive model of visitor experience one that can help museum professionals better meet those visitors needs The Museum Experience John H Falk,2016-06-16 In the first book to take a visitor s eye view of the museum visit Falk and Dierking present research findings to demonstrate people s motivations for visiting museums and how museum professionals can enhance their visitors experiences Ghosts!
