Notes From Underground Vintage Classics:

Notes from Underground Fyodor Dostoevsky, 1993 Award winning translators Richard Pevear and Larissa Volokhonsky give us a brilliantly faithful rendition of this classic novel in all its tragedy and tormented comedy In this second edition they have updated their translation in honor of the 200th anniversary of Dostoevsky's birth One of the most remarkable characters in literature the unnamed narrator of Dostoevsky's most revolutionary novel is a former official who has defiantly withdrawn into an underground existence In full retreat from society he scrawls a passionate obsessive self contradictory narrative that serves as a devastating attack on social utopianism and an assertion of man's essentially irrational nature Notes from the Underground F. Dostoevsky, 2017-03-29 Notes from the Underground by F Dostoevsky Worldwide literature classic among top 100 literary novels of all time A must read for everybody In the 1980s Italo Calvino the most translated contemporary Italian writer at the time of his death said in his essay Why Read the Classics that a classic is a book that has never finished saying what it has to say without any doubt this book can be considered a Classic This book is also a Bestseller because as Steinberg defined a bestseller as a book for which demand within a short time of that book's initial publication vastly exceeds what is then considered to be big sales Richard Flanagan Robert Dixon, Ben Holgate, Joseph Cummins, Laura A. White, Bill Ashcroft, Salhia-Ben Messahel, Marc Delrez, Margaret Harris, Nathanael O'Reilly, Theodore F. Sheckels, Nicholas Birns, Liliana Zavaglia, 2018-10-12 Richard Flanagan Critical Essays is the first book to be published about the life and work of this major world author Written by twelve leading critics from Australia Europe and North America these richly varied essays offer new ways of understanding Flanagan's contribution to Tasmanian Australian and world literature Flanagan's fictional worlds offer empathetic often poignant renderings of those whose voices have been lost beneath official accounts of history stories from a small region that have made their mark on a global scale Considering his seven novels as well as his non fiction journalism and correspondence this collection examines the historical and geographical factors that have shaped Flanagan's representation of Tasmanian identity This collection offers new insights into a determinedly regional writer and the impact he has had on a local national and global scale **Postcolonial African Migration to the West** Belachew

Gebrewold, 2024-07-04 Postcolonial African migration to the West is not only a spatial movement in search of material and physical security but also an expression of the mimetic desire for being by imitating the West or whitening oneself against the background of the dehumanizing historical legacies of slavery colonialism and Western dominance It is a flight from oneself from perceived inadequacies To migrate to the West is an expression of the desire for being not through detachment from the fascinating West but rather through adoration and imitation of its lifestyle beauty ideals and soft and hard power and by living in the West The model the West builds ubiquitous anti migrant physical and virtual fences which the imitator tries to overcome The more the model re strengthens these fences the more the imitator tries to scale them The anti migrant fences are the meeting point of the model's perceived superiority admirability and desirability on the one hand and on the other hand the imitator's inferiority complex and inner tension between the paradoxical desire for detachment from the model and its passionate imitation at the same time This book argues that African migration to the West will continue even in the absence of poverty conflicts and climate change because it is also about the mimetic desire for being
