Triangle Papers , 1999

Nuclear Proliferation Graham T. Allison, 2006 There is no greater challenge to global peace today than the proliferation of nuclear weapons and the increasing likelihood that terrorists may acquire nuclear material

The papers presented in this report from the Trilateral Commission's 2006 annual meeting in Tokyo offer a comprehensive and insightful overview of this urgent challenge The authors from North America Europe and Pacific Asia examine the risks posed by nuclear proliferation with particular attention to Iran and North Korea and offer recommendations to prevent nuclear catastrophe Emerging from the Shadows Manpreet Sethi, Kanika Rakhra, 2025-01-31 National security war and strategy are mostly considered male preserves across the world even when as professional scholars or policy practitioners women have made significant contributions Women voices and the subject of disarmament have been hidden in the shadows of mainstream security discourse for far too long The book seeks to right stream these by bringing together writings of women security experts scholars and diplomats in India on issues of nuclear disarmament and non proliferation International efforts towards sustainable nuclear non proliferation and disarmament are struggling to find the right way This book shifts the focus to the imperative of disarmament with women authors who share their perspectives on what the future for disarmament looks like and where India a leading voice on disarmament stands on these issues The volume explores India's nuclear disarmament journey efforts towards and roadblocks in the implementation of nuclear disarmament verification confidence building and nuclear risk reduction measures as pathways towards disarmament nuclear energy and proliferation trends linkage between nuclear non proliferation and disarmament and India's commitment towards the Women Peace and Security agenda This volume will be of great interest to students and scholars researchers policymakers and members of the diplomatic community in the fields of security and strategic studies international relations politics disarmament diplomacy
