Federal Student Financial Aid Handbook, 1995

Program Director's Handbook AmeriCorps (U.S.), 2003

Handbook of Student Financial Aid Robert H. Fenske, Robert P. Huff, 1983 Handbook of Research in Education Finance and Policy Helen F. Ladd, Edward B. Fiske, 2012-08-21 Sponsored by the Association for Education Finance and Policy AEFPP this groundbreaking new handbook assembles in one place the existing research based knowledge in education finance and policy thereby helping to define this evolving field of research and practice It provides a readily available resource for anyone seriously involved in education finance and policy in the United States and around the world The Handbook traces the evolution of the field from its initial focus on school inputs and the revenue sources used to finance these inputs to a focus on educational outcomes and the larger policies used to achieve them It shows how the current decision making context in school finance inevitably interacts with those of governance accountability equity privatization and other areas of education policy Because a full understanding of the important contemporary issues requires input from a variety of perspectives the Handbook draws on contributors from a variety of disciplines While many of the chapters cover complex state of the art empirical research the authors explain key concepts in language that non specialists can understand

The Logic of Decision Making Janevive Jean Mechanic, 1988 This text appropriate for either a college course or for the general reader is a detailed presentation of a nine phase procedure for successful decision making The sequential process approach is applied to personal and interpersonal problems and to legal and business decision making Each phase is accompanied by exercises which prompt students or readers to use their new skills in solving their own problems Examples for discussion are selected from recent newspaper and magazine articles Guide to the Most Competitive Colleges Barron's Educational Series, 2007-08-01 More than 70 of the most academically competitive four year colleges in the United States are described in detail each entry written by a recent graduate of that school The book's personalized entries offer insights that readers aren't likely to find in other college directories such as first hand descriptions of campus environment social life and activities and nearby off campus activities and points of interest Each college profile also includes the standard need to know facts and figures such as admission requirements academic programs tuitions and fees application procedures sources of financial aid library and research facilities student body composition and admission contacts Not every aspiring student can get into America's most competitive colleges and this book also suggests application strategies study strategies essay writing strategies and financing strategies designed to help students gain admission Also featured is a Most Competitive Comparison Chart that presents at a glance statistics for each school The Tools & Techniques of Financial Planning Stephan R. Leimberg, 2002 Financial Aids for Higher Education Oreon Keeslar, 1991 Vouchers and the Provision of Public Services C. Eugene Steuerle, 2000 A Brookings Institution Press Committee for Economic Development and Urban Institute Press publication For decades the use of vouchers has been widely debated But often lost in the heat of debate is the fact that vouchers are just another tool in the government's tool chest a restricted subsidy that falls somewhere between the extremes of cash and direct government provision of services The instrument itself is not new the 1944 GI Bill of Rights was a voucher and vouchers for food college aid and housing have been in place for decades Until now however the study of vouchers has been restricted to a few controversial applications This volume which grew out of a conference sponsored by the Brookings Institution the Urban Institute and the Committee for Economic Development fills the gap offering a framework for comparative analysis of specific policy issues related to vouchers Its 16 essays address the economics politics and legal issues of voucher use and explore how vouchers are currently employed in the United States and abroad for education child care job training housing and health care C Eugene Steuerle is a senior fellow at the Urban Institute and has worked under four different U S presidents on a variety of reform issues in such areas as social security budget tax and health policy Robert D Reischauer a senior fellow in Economic Studies at the Brookings Institution was director of the Congressional Budget Office from 1989 to 1995 George Peterson is a senior fellow at the Urban Institute from 1976 to 1985 he directed the Institute's Public Finance Research Center Van Doorn Ooms senior vice president and director of research at the Committee for Economic Development was formerly executive director for policy and chief economist of the Committee on the Budget U S House of Representatives 1989 1990 and was the Budget Committee's chief economist from 1981 to 1988
