

Alice The Musical

Act One

Overture (Entr'acte could be used as an alternative)

Lewis Carroll

Many a day we rowed together on that quiet stream, the three little maidens, Duckworth and I — and many a fairy tale had been told for their benefit. Yet none of these many tales got written down, they lived and died, like summer midges, each in its golden afternoon, until there came a day when one of my listeners begged that the tale be written out for her ...

ALL IN A GOLDEN AFTERNOON

All

*All in a golden afternoon
Under the skies of cloudless blue,
Leisurely gliding time away,
Heading upstream to find some shade,
Sleepily drifting on our way that dreamy English summer's day*

*All in a golden afternoon
Eager for stories wild and new,
Three little ladies named 'Liddell'
Longed for a fable to be told.
What can a single voice avail against three tongues that beg a tale?
Tell us a story, tell us a story, tell us a story.*

*All in a golden afternoon
Tales of imagination grew.
Alice the dream-child took our hands
Through many adventures, all unplanned.
Slowly the tales of Wonderland did come to us as now they stand.
Tell us a story, tell us a story, tell us a story.*

Lewis Carroll

*(Sitting at writing desk) Full many a year has slipped away that 'golden afternoon', but I can call it up almost as clearly as if it were yesterday — the cloudless blue above, the watery mirror below, the boat drifting idly on its way, the tinkle of the drops that fell from the oars as they waved so sleepily to and fro, and the three eager faces, hungry for news of fairyland. (Starting to write) Alice was beginning to get very tired of sitting by her sister on the bank and of having nothing to do. Once or twice she had peeped into the book her sister was reading. *(The remainder of Lewis Carroll's lines can be read as he 'writes' the story.)

Alice

What is the use of a book without pictures or conversations in it?
