Ethiopia and beyond Village Gone Viral uses the example of Awra Amba to consider the widespread circulation and use of modeling practices in an increasingly transnational and digital policy world With a particular focus on traveling models policy models that become viral through various vectors ranging from NGOs and multilateral organizations to the Internet Marit Tolo steb critically examines the hidden dimensions of models and model making While a policy model may be presented as a best practice one that can be scaled up and successfully applied to other places the local impacts of the model paradigm are far more ambivalent potentially increasing social inequalities reinforcing social stratification and concealing injustice With this book steb ultimately calls for a reflexive critical anthropology of the production circulation and use of models as instruments for social change

Humour of Vladimir Nabokov Paul Benedict Grant,2024-09-30 Many critics classify Vladimir Nabokov as a highbrow humourist a refined wordsmith overly fond of playful puzzles and private in jokes whose art appeals primarily to an intellectually sophisticated readership This study presents a more balanced portrait placing equal emphasis on the broader earthier humour that is such a marked feature of Nabokov s writing which draws on the human body and all things physical for its laughs sex and scatology farce and slapstick Moving between the metaphysical and the physical the cosmic and the comic mind and matter it presents Nabokov as a writer at home in both high and low forms of humour a comedian who is capable of producing as many belly laughs as brainteasers and of appealing to a much wider readership than is commonly supposed

Women and the Making of Poetry in Ariosto's Orlando Furioso Ita Mac Carthy,2007 This book examines the representation of women in the Orlando furioso and the making of a poem that both curses and blesses them
