Wine Enthusiast ,2009 Studies in Temporal Urbanism Fabian Neuhaus,2011-08-04 This book is very much about what the name urbanTick literally says about the ticking of the urban the urban as we experience it everyday on the bus in the park or between buildings It is about the big orchestrated mass migration of commuters the seasonal blossoms of the trees along the walkway and the frequency of the stamping rubbish-eater trucks It is also not to forget about climate infrastructure opening hours term times parking meters time tables growing shadows and moonlight But most of all it is about how all this is experienced by citizens on a daily basis and how they navigate within this complex structure of patterns

The content of this book is based on the content of the urbanTick blog between 2008-2010. One year blogging about this topic brought together a large collection of different aspects and thoughts. It is not at all a conclusive view; the opposite might be the case; it is an exploratory work in progress while trying to capture as many facets of the topic as possible. Information Needs of Communities Steven Waldman, 2011-09. In 2009 a bipartisan Knight Commission found that while the broadband age is enabling an info and commun renaissance local communities in particular are being unevenly served with critical info about local issues. Soon after the Knight Commission delivered its findings the FCC initiated a working group to identify crosscurrent and trend and make recommendations on how the info needs of communities can be met in a broadband world. This report by the FCC Working Group on the Info Needs of Communities addresses the rapidly changing media landscape in a broadband age.
