Nice Film Studies Essential Introduction Essentials:

A2 Film Studies Sarah Casey Benyahia, Freddie Gaffney, John White, 2010-12-14 A2 Film Studies The Essential Introduction gives students the confidence to tackle every part of the WJEC A2 Level Film Studies course. The authors who have wide ranging experience as teachers, examiners and authors introduce students step by step to the skills involved in the study of film. The second edition has been re designed and re written to follow the new WJEC A2 syllabus for 2009 teaching onwards and is supported by a companion website at www.alevelfilmstudies.co.uk offering further advice and activities. There is a chapter for each exam topic including The small scale research project, The creative project, Aspects of a national cinema, Bollywood, Iranian, Japanese and Mexican International Film Styles, German and/or Soviet Surrealism, Neo Realism and New Waves, Specialist studies, Urban Stories and Empowering Women Spectatorship topics. Early cinema before 1917, Documentary, Experimental and expanded film, video and Popular film and emotional responses. The single film critical study every film covered. Specifically designed to be user friendly, the second edition of A2 Film Studies The Essential Introduction has a new text design to make the book easy to follow, includes more than sixty colour images and is packed with features such as case studies relevant to the 2009 specification, activities on films like All About My Mother, 10, Vertigo and City of God, key terms, example exam questions, suggestions for further reading and website resources. Matched to the current WJEC specification, A2 Film Studies The Essential Introduction covers everything students need to study as part of the course.

AS Film Studies Sarah Casey Benyahia, Freddie Gaffney, John White, 2009-05-07 AS Film Studies The Essential Introduction gives students the confidence to tackle every part of the WJEC AS level Film Studies course. The authors who have wide ranging experience as teachers, examiners and authors introduce students step by step to the skills involved in the study of film. The second edition follows the new WJEC syllabus for 2008 teaching onwards and has a companion website with additional resources for students and teachers. Specifically designed to be user friendly, the second edition of AS Film Studies The Essential Introduction has a new text design to make the book easy to follow, includes more than 100 colour photographs and is jam packed with features such as Case studies relevant to the 2008 specification, Activities on films including Little Miss Sunshine, Pirates of the Caribbean, The Descent, Key terms, Example exam questions, Suggestions for further reading and website resources.

AS Film Studies Sarah Casey Benyahia, 2006 AS Film Studies Sarah Casey Benyahia, Freddie Gaffney, John White, 2016-01-01 The new edition has kept useful material whilst updating some case studies and revamping some of the formats to offer itself as more an independent guide for students to use with clear explanations of key terms and with a range of examples from relatively recent films that students can use as models to apply to their own experience. A good introduction for students at this level. Media Education Association Newsletter When I first flicked through the AS Film Studies book I was amazed on how much there is but the more there is the more you learn so I am extremely happy about that I was looking for a book that is in good structured layout and easy to understand. Overall a great book to have I
