Business Week ,1989 Time ,1998 John Key: Portrait of a Prime Minister John Roughan,2017-01-30 New Zealand s most popular modern day Prime Minister John Key shocked many with his decision to step down from office less than a year out from a general election Rather than doing what most expected and seeking an historic fourth term Key opted to quit while his approval rating was still high and before voters tired of him I always thought leaders overstay their welcome They just start grating with people All the things people liked about them they start not to like Key tells journalist John Roughan in this updated edition of John Key Portrait of a Prime Minister A fascinating insight into Key s early life personality and motivations Roughan s account of John Key s rise and rise examines how the twin ambitions of a boy in a state house to make a million dollars and be Prime Minister were realised beyond his dreams As popular as ever after eight years as Prime Minister Key chose to leave the job he loved and the voters who seemed certain to return him to office But as Roughan concludes it s perhaps not surprising that the instincts that served him so well as a currency trader and which also informed his approach to politics ultimately fuelled Key s unprecedented decision to retire at the height of his power Business Review Weekly ,2006 South ,1990 Newsreview ,1998-07 Rebalancing the economy Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Business, Innovation and Skills Committee,2011-07-11 Additional written evidence is contained in volume 3 available on the Committee website at www.parliament.uk/bis New York Magazine ,1985-06-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Bulletin ,1986-04
