Rajeev Bector, 2025-01-05 The more Ajay Gill pursues love and happiness the more disenchanted and lonely he feels. As Ajay learns to navigate New York's dating app culture he experiences a series of tumultuous relationships and endures emotional and psychological fallout. The loss of connection with his son exacerbates his cynicism and estrangement and despite his multiple efforts to reconnect the relationship remains fraught with challenges and misunderstandings. Love Lamentations uses a non linear structure weaving together various episodes to illustrate how happenstance and personal failure color one's conception of the universe. Ajay's journey is one of introspection and self discovery as he gradually learns to accept and then embrace his destiny. The novel explores themes of identity, cultural dislocation and alienation. I Will Die On This Hill

Meghan Ashburn, Jules Edwards, 2023-01-19 There is a significant divide between autistic advocates and parents of autistic children. Parents may feel attacked for their lack of understanding and autistic adults who offer insight and guidance are also met with hostility and rejection. Meghan Ashburn a mother of two autistic boys and Jules Edwards an autistic parent were no strangers to this tension and had an adversarial relationship when they first met. Over time the two resolved their differences and are now co conspirators in the pursuit of disability justice. This book unites both perspectives exploring the rift between these communities and encouraging them to work towards a common goal. It provides context to dividing issues and the authors use their experience to illustrate where they've messed up, where they've got things right and what they've learned along the way. Blood Bound: A Steamy Private Security Unexpected Love Romance Samantha Cole, 2020-07-20
