Brown Twyla Tharp Sandy Jamrog Jane Comfort Jody Oberfelder Jawole Willa Jo Zollar Miguel Gutierrez Yanira Castro No mie LaFrance and Meg Foley By presenting their bodies in performance these artists demonstrate how their experiences surrounding pregnancy intersect not only with their artform and its history but also with their personal experiences of race gender and sexual identification In these pages Johanna Kirk argues that choreography offers them tools that are alternative to medicine or other forms of social representation for understanding what how pregnant bodies do and feel and what they can mean for individuals and their communities The works within these chapters invite readers to see dancing bodies and pregnant bodies in new ways and for their potential to manifest new possibilities This study will be of great interest to students and scholars exploring dance theatre and performance race and gender
