Nature Writing Nature Writing:

The Oxford Book of Nature Writing Richard Mabey, 1995 Mabey has brought together a sampler of some of the greatest writings on nature ever penned This collection contains passages from Aristotle and Aesop as well as excerpts from the great Romantic writers William Wordsworth and Samuel Coleridge Writings by Charles Darwin Henry David Thoreau and George Audubon are also featured      Writing Naturally David Petersen, 2014-11-04 A uniquely compelling refreshingly practical and unimpeachably informed how to guide for aspiring and published nature writers      Nature Writing Robert Finch, John Elder, 2002 The first anthology to represent the full range of nature writing s rich and flourishing tradition from lyrical essays to thoughtful encounters with new ethical and ecological concerns      Turning the Boat for Home Richard Mabey, 2019-10-03 One of our greatest nature writers Guardian For over fifty years Richard Mabey has been a pioneering voice in modern nature writing This book collects pieces across his rich career tracing his continually evolving ideas as much as the profound changes in our environment From the rediscovery of food foraging in the 1970s to reflections on the musicality of birdsong these essays show Mabey s passionate belief that our planet is a commonwealth for all species and that our reconnection with the living world is more vital than ever Richard Mabey is among the best writers at work in Britain Tim Dee Poised where nature meets culture Mabey is knowledgeable politically savvy and wry and an excellent naturalist New Statesman      Nature Writing , 1993 This folder contains several drafts of writing about nature by Brian Medlin Also included is an extract from a letter to Iris Murdoch      Beyond Nature Writing Karla Armbruster, Kathleen R. Wallace, 2001 Ecocriticism a field of study that has expanded dramatically over the past decade has nevertheless remained until recently closely focused on critical analyses of nature writing and literature of wilderness The authors push well beyond that established framework with this collection of essays by respected ecocritics and scholars from the literary and environmental arenas      American Nature Writing 1994 John A. Murray, 1994 Inaugurating a new annual series devoted to selecting and presenting the best in contemporary American nature writing this initial volume includes some of America s most distinguished nature writers as well as some promising new talents This first collection encompasses a variety of genres including fiction journal writing poetry personal essays and feature articles Readers will hunt for peregrine falcons near the Great Salt Lake with Terry Tempest Williams sneak into Cuba with Bob Shacochis to observe the Ernest Hemingway International Classic Billfish Tournament and explore the botanical and paleontological wonders of the Central American land bridge with David Rains Wallace Also included are an excerpt from Annie Dillard s novel The Living and a previously unpublished selection from the journals of Edward Abbey At last here is nature writing at its boisterous gritty and lyrical best Nature writing is poised at the beginning of a period of wonderful exuberance All of the excitement that attends the beginning of a new century and the start of a new millennium together with a growing awareness of the interdependence of nature and culture cannot help but fuel this historic genre I believe that as the genre attracts more and more gifted young writers and addresses increasingly the compelling political and social issues of our time it will gain in stature and maturity offering what Barry Lopez so eloquently called a literature of hope John A Murray from the Introduction John A Murray is Assistant Professor of English at the University of Alaska Fairbanks and the author editor of eleven previous books including Wild Africa Three Centuries of Nature Writing from Africa Nature's New Voices The Great Bear Contemporary Writings on the Grizzly The Islands and the Sea and A Republic of Rivers
