Navy staffs build and equip the Navy plan its future and guide its current operations. During a staff tour a savvy Navy leader can have positive reach beyond the lifelines of a single command with impact across the fleet and years into the future. This guide provides and explains those tools and marks the shoals that can wreck the unaware enabling both new and seasoned staff officers to be prepared for the unique requirements of staff duty. Through extensive use of historical examples and sea stories it introduces the reader to why staffs exist how they impact the Navy and how they can offer both professional development and meaningful accomplishment. Recognizing that Navy staffs vary in their purposes and organization The Navy Staff Officer's Guide synthesizes those differences into meaningful guidance for all staff officers civilians and Sailors whether assigned to a destroyer squadron staff operating from a DDG or to the OPNAV staff in the Pentagon. Effective coordination clear communication and an understanding of the commander and their mission are central to staff success and are clearly articulated.
