Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

Facing the Abyss George Hutchinson,2018-01-23 Mythologized as the era of the good war and the Greatest Generation the 1940s are frequently understood as a more heroic uncomplicated time in American history Yet just below the surface a sense of dread alienation and the haunting specter of radical evil permeated American art and literature Writers returned home from World War II and gave form to their disorienting experiences of violence and cruelty They probed the darkness that the war opened up and confronted bigotry existential guilt ecological concerns and fear about the nature and survival of the human race In Facing the Abyss George Hutchinson offers readings of individual works and the larger intellectual and cultural scene to reveal the 1940s as a period of profound and influential accomplishment Facing the Abyss examines the relation of aesthetics to politics the idea of universalism and the connections among authors across racial ethnic and gender divisions Modernist and avant garde styles were absorbed into popular culture as writers and artists turned away from social realism to emphasize the process of artistic creation Hutchinson explores a range of important writers from Saul Bellow and Mary McCarthy to Richard Wright and James Baldwin African American and Jewish novelists critiqued racism and anti Semitism women writers pushed back on the misogyny unleashed during the war and authors such as Gore Vidal and Tennessee Williams reflected a new openness in the depiction of homosexuality. The decade also witnessed an awakening of American environmental and ecological consciousness. Hutchinson argues that despite the individualized experiences depicted in these works a common belief in art's ability to communicate the universal in particulars united the most important works of literature and art during the 1940s. Hutchinson's capacious view of American literary and cultural history masterfully weaves together a wide range of creative and intellectual expression into a sweeping new narrative of this pivotal decade.

Writers at the head of a football hooligan ring. A pilot who crafts his poetry in the sky. A tour de force of black humour and imaginary erudition. Nazi Literature in the Americas presents itself as a biographical dictionary of pan American writers who espoused extreme right wing ideologies in the 20th and 21st centuries. Terrifyingly witty and remarkably inventive this is the virtuosic one of a kind masterpiece which brought Bolano fame throughout the Spanish speaking world. TRANSLATED BY CHRIS ANDREWS. London Review of Books    The Tender Hour of Twilight Richard Seaver,2012-01-03 From Beckett to Burroughs The Story of O to The Autobiography of Malcolm X an iconic literary troublemaker tells the colorful stories behind the stories. Richard Seaver came to Paris in 1950 seeking Hemingway's moveable feast. Paris had become a different city traumatized by World War II yet the red wine still flowed the caf's bustled and the Parisian women found American men exotic and heroic. There was an Irishman in Paris writing plays and novels unlike anything anyone had ever read but hardly anyone was reading them. There were others too doing equivalently groundbreaking work for equivalently small audiences. So when his friends launched a literary magazine Merlin Seaver knew this was his calling to bring the work of the likes of Samuel Beckett Eugene Ionesco and Jean Genet to the world. The Korean War ended all that the navy had paid for college and it was time to pay them back. After two years at sea Seaver washed ashore in New York City with a beautiful French wife and a wider sense of the world than his compatriots. The only young literary man with the audacity to match Seaver's own was Barney Rosset of Grove Press. A remarkable partnership was born one that would demolish U.S. censorship laws with inimitable joie de vivre as Seaver and Rosset introduced American readers to Lady Chatterly's Lover Henry Miller Story of O William Burroughs The Autobiography of Malcolm X and more As publishing hurtles into its uncertain future The Tender Hour of Twilight is a stirring reminder of the passion the vitality and even the glamour of a true life in literature    The Virginia Quarterly Review ,1984    Library Journal ,2001    School Library Journal ,1966    The Reporter ,1959
