young that just wants to serve his county After the bumpy ride at Officer School the young man proceeded to his first Duty

Station at Portsmouth Naval Hospital where things only progressed to worsen instead of take a turn for the positive for the young man Before they would know or understand what or how it he would be mired in a deep mess of paperwork the young man s career would be at stake and they d get a very unwanted taste of the military judicial system He was pitted up against one of the greatest forces there are the United States Government with all the powers that be behind them against a lowly Lieutenant Second Grade and his family Would he be torn apart by these forces or would he triumph over the overwhelming odds It s a David versus Goliath story off good versus evil that you ll be sitting on the edge of your seat as you read hanging on every word Around every corn with every turn of the page comes a new triumph and a new set back along with it There is no telling what is going to happen next in this harrowing tale Not only is it a cliff hanger but it s also a tale of triumph over personal tragedy From the beginning there are personal triumphs that have to be made in the young man s life that are extremely hard to deal with I m talking about losses losses that bury people Losses that some people crawl under rocks to hide from and are never seen from again Those are the kinds of things this book deals with the greatest of greats and the worst of the worst It s a nail biter at every corner that will leave you wanting for more til the end It s a book you won t want to put down for sure
